Holy Saturday: Services begin at 7:30 a. m. Mass at 8 o'clock. Pastor water will be distributed after the Mass.
Easter Sunday: High Mass at 10:30 o'clock. Special music. Sermon by the Rev. Ignatius Cameron.

Breakfast Date Set
Hornell St. Ann's Holy Name Society Communion breakfast will be held in St. Ann's Theater in the Federation building, Sunday, May 10.

The Very Rev. Thomas Pissaman, O.F.M., president of St. Bonaventure's College, will be the principal speaker. Five hundred members of the society plan to be present.

Wedding Arranged
Hornell Announcement has been made of the impending marriage of Miss Lillian McManis of Flies Avenue to Dr. Edmund Daboll of Pardee Street. They plan to be married April 14 at Susquehanna Pa., home of the bride's parents.

Given Lenten Sermons
Hornell The Rev. Francis A. McGinley, Ph.D. of the Scranton diocese, completed his series of Lenten sermons at St. Ann's Church on Wednesday, April 14. Subject of the series was "The Commandments of the Church."

Study Clubs Meet
Hornell Joint meeting of the Study Clubs of the parish was held Friday evening, April 3, at which the Rev. J. C. Newcomb, spiritual director, displayed the vestments and sacred vessels used in the Mass.

Japan Parish Gets Land Once Owned by Persecution Leader
Shimizu (N. Y. C. Falls)—The Catholic parish at Shimizu has recently acquired a small tract of land which was owned early in the seventeenth century by the Shogun Ieyasu, one of the perpetrators of the "great martyrdom," the cruel and most extensive persecution of the Christians in Japan.

The parish priest, the Rev. Lucien Delahaye of the Foreign Mission of Paris, has found a resemblance between the little seaport parish and his native town in France, Boulogne on the English Channel, and he has dedicated the new church to Our Lady of Boulogne. Services of the Mass will be held five hours by rail from Tokyo.

Missal Supplement Issued As Pamphlet
New York, (N.C.)—The Catholic Missal Supplement for 1936 a thin handy size pamphlet arranged by the Very Rev. C. J. Callan O.P. and the Very Rev. John A. M. Hight O.P. has been announced by P. J. Kennedy and Sons of this city publishers.

The purpose of "The Catholic Missal Supplement" is to give the user an accurate guide to the current liturgical year. The priest himself must necessarily consult his Order daily in order to locate the proper Mass of the day. Consequently, those who assist at Mass also need dependable guidance which they will find in this little pamphlet. Copies for 1937 it is anticipated, will be obtainable in December of this year.

Picture Only Address On Letter Delivered To Prelate in Mails
By V. MYSLIVEC
Czechoslovakia Correspondent.

N. C. W. C. News Service Prague The postal authorities here have just delivered to Mgr. Bohumil Slasek, member of Parliament and popular leader of Czech Catholics, on the occasion of his fiftieth birthday, a letter of congratulation which bore a picture of the prelate instead of the usual name and street address.

A Catholic farmer in the country wishing to test Monsignor Slasek's popularity in the Capital cut out a picture of the priest from a Catholic newspaper, affixed the cutting to an envelope and wrote underneath the picture only "Vesela rad," the name of the Prague district where the prelate resides. The letter so addressed was delivered without any delay, arriving with thousands of other messages.

Progressive HORNELL Sends

to the CATHOLIC COURIER and to its thousands of readers with the fervent wish that so progressive a newspaper will continue to grow in prestige and power for both the Catholic and general public welfare in the Rochester Diocese. May the year to come be fully as productive as have been the four since reorganization of the CATHOLIC COURIER was undertaken.
