

RESURRECTION FOR SINNERS, SAYS MONSIGNOR SHEEN IN RADIO TALK

New York (The Resurrection for sinners," asserted the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen in the address of the "Catholic Hour" on Easter Sunday.

The "Catholic Hour" is broadcast over a network of the National Broadcasting Company, through Station WEAF here, and is produced by the National Council of Catholic Men.

Monsignor Sheen said that the Incarnation was announced to a Virgin by His Revelation was in a "Mystery." It is this "Mystery" which is hidden in the great truth of Easter Day. The Resurrection is the final and absolute proof that Our Lord has come not to call the just but sinners.

Speak Lesson in Magdalen

Continuing Monsignor Sheen said that Mary Magdalen was the first to see the empty tomb. But he says that she was not the first to see the empty tomb. He says that she was the first to see the empty tomb. He says that she was the first to see the empty tomb.

THIRD WEEK IN APRIL, 1926
The Administrative Committee of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, after conducting the Mexican situation at a three-day meeting in Washington today, issued a statement in which it recommended that the United States should not intervene in Mexico.

THIRD WEEK IN APRIL, 1931
Word from the Vatican announced that the Holy See had granted a dispensation for the marriage of two Catholics in the United States. The Rev. Fr. John A. Ryan, of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, said that the dispensation was granted because the couple were unable to find a priest to perform the ceremony.

U. S. Establishes New Post Office at C. U. Named for Cardinal

Washington, D. C. (AP) A new post office at the University of America will be named for Cardinal John A. Ryan. The post office is located in the University City area. It will be named in honor of the late Cardinal Ryan, who was a prominent figure in the Catholic Church in the United States.

Correspondence Course in Catechism A Success

Russ Hahn's correspondence catechism course inaugurated last year by the Most Rev. Edward J. Kelly Bishop of Boise has already proved itself a most encouraging success. Parents are delighted with the opportunity it has provided their children to receive religious instruction which heretofore had seemed almost impossible. The children themselves are willing participants in the work. Often children and parents work and study together, establishing unity and happiness in the Christian home.
