ASK MEXICO'S PRESIDENT TO OPEN CHURCHES

Catholics Petition Cardenas To Keep Promises He Made
Mexico City—Catholic citizens of Zacapu in the State of Michoacan were unsuccessful in their efforts to obtain an interview with President Lazaro Cardenas during his visit at that town.

Local as well as State authorities have greatly reduced the number authorized by canceling licenses, expelling pastors and refusing to allow vacancies to be filled.

More than 500 citizens of Villahermosa capital of Tabasco, Mexico, petitioned the President referring to his Grand Jubilee speech in which he said that there was no persecution in the country and that Catholics were free to practice their religion.

President Cardenas has promised to open churches. He has said that he will allow Catholics to practice their religion freely.
