DEAN UPHOLDS RELIGION IN CURRICULUM

Denial of a current belief that the student in a Catholic college devotes his time to the study of religion to the detriment of other subjects considered more practical was made by Dean John R Wilkinson Niagara University Rochester Division in a talk to members of the Knights of Columbus in Columbus Civic Centre Building last Tuesday evening

Dean Wilkinson's address came during the Catholic Action section of the Council meeting

Many of the difficulties in the economic and business world of today are a direct result of the lack of moral training said he believe In the Catholic college the moral effect is gained through religious courses as well as in the routine course said Dean Wilkinson

Material education is not minimized but is enhanced by emphasizing the moral implications possibilities Lack of training of this nature tends to result in rugged individualism"

Answering the question Why Go To a Catholic College? Dean Wilkinson outlined the following principal reasons

Because training in religious has effective and become atmosphere where it is flourishing

Because courses if not equal prior to those offered by the non Catholic colleges Study is usually superv ed to prevent extra-mural activities from breaking down the primary purposes of college education

- Sunday's Mass

A GUIDE TO THE LITURGICAL YEAR

By The REV. PAUL BUSSARD
(Editor, The Leaflet Missal)

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Because of the Gospel this Sunday is often called Good Shepherd Sunday Christ is the Good Shepherd who laid down His life for us that we might have life He has been kind to us So the Introit says that the earth is filled with His loving-kindness, and that is indeed true

St Peter the vicar of the Good Shepherd tells us that when we were as sheep we were straying But now since our Lord has borne our sins in His Body on the wood of the Cross, we have returned to the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls

Formerly the station of today's Mass church where the Pope celebrated Mass was St Peter's Indeed there is everywhere present in the Mass the thought of the first Vicar of Christ who followed His example by giving up his life also Christ founded the papal primacy on the faith and love of St Peter who did not hesitate to give his life for the flock entrusted to him who sealed his pastoral office with his own blood Like Christ he stretched out his arms upon the cross as though to take the City of Rome and the people of the world under his protection
