

CRYING IN THE DARK

By Eileen Leary

What is the cure for a heartache? Delle writes:

"Dear Eileen Leary: My sister was engaged to a boy who broke off the engagement, effective May 1, leaving her in a very un-narrowing and gloomy state of mind. She has not been able to get over it for some time. I have had a very un-satisfactory husband. She is younger than I am and is popular. She will not let me see her. I know, but I have no quick cure for a heartache. The world is weighed down with broken hearts. When a doctor talks to a patient who is suffering from some emotional upset to the nervous system he usually suggests a change of scenery. (The Southern cruise, if you have the money.) If you are unable to go away he advises long walks down country roads early in the morning, if possible, and above all, keep busy! Personally, Della, the only quick cure for a heartache that I know is that trust in God, the one never-failing Friend. Boys as well as girls, men as well as women, know what it is to suffer from lost love."

But I was happy all the while. Planning where I should lay my treasure. Ere I'd gone a mile Friends' faces loomed upon the hill. And friends were new to me in those young days. I longed to fill Their lives with ecstasy.

They took my gift without a thought— How much of me I'd given. Oh, it was cruel and cruelly taught. That friends aren't always Heaven. But I still held intrinsic wares Of love and hope sublime. So, binding up my wounds and tears, I travelled on with Time.

Now Fame and Wealth lived down in town Behind a cut-glass door.

God and Your Child

By Marie Cecelia McGrath, Ph.D.

Question of the month concerning the content and moral training of children will be discussed by the author of "God and Your Child" at the Catholic Center.

The month of our Lady, the Virgin Mary, is observed by Catholics of all faiths and creeds. It is a time when the hearts of men and women are turned to the Mother of Jesus Christ, who is the source of all our graces and mercies. It is a time when we are reminded of the love and compassion of God for all His creatures. It is a time when we are inspired to live our lives in accordance with the teachings of the Church and the example of the Virgin Mary.

SUZANNE'S TALKS ON COLOR HARMONY "As One Woman To Another"

The rare distinction that distinguishes one woman from another lies in the harmonious effect she may have on others. Personality counts a great deal and by no means less important her ensemble of the moment. Therein lies the moral of this story—when shopping for clothes picture in your mind all individual purchases together and ask yourself this question: "Does my ensemble harmonize?" If the answer is "yes," then a few clothes will make a symphony of harmonizing colors.
