Warns Against 'Pressure of Security Act'

St. Louis—The federal agency charged with administering the Social Security Act should not seek to improve its services on the state and the attitude of the federal agencies toward the state police is the crucial point in the whole program, declared the Rev. John T. Harty, president of the National Conference of Catholic Charities, in a statement issued following a meeting of a committee on Revolution and Policies of the American Dieticians Association, held here.
