Department Store Executives Voice Congratulations On Paper's Fourth Reorganization Anniversary: Other Messages Are Also Received

Culminating the fourth anniversary of the reorganization of the CATHOLIC COURIER, Rochester's leading merchant newspaper, this week hailed the progress made by the official diocesan weekly in that time.

Congratulatory messages were received by the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, managing editor, and Howard W. Klippert, manager of the CATHOLIC COURIER.

The text of these messages follows: SIBLEY, LINDSAY & CURR CO. Executive Offices, Rochester, N. Y. April 29, 1936. Mr. Howard W. Klippert, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York. Dear Mr. Klippert:

May I join with others in expressing my admiration for the manner in which you have built up the Catholic Courier in a very brief space of time from a medium of only a handful of subscribers to a paper with a commanding circulation. Such a result could, of course, only be attained through the character of the paper having been markedly improved and your having created a general interest in it throughout the diocese.

Very sincerely yours, H. W. BRAMLEY. NATIONAL CLOTHING CO. Rochester, N. Y. May 5, 1936. Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Mgr. Editor, Catholic Courier & Journal, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, N. Y. My dear Father Mooney: Mr. Klippert has told me of the splendid showing in new circulation you have recently made on the Courier, and I think you're both deserving of great credit.

I am personally, very much pleased to note this progress, particularly since I am familiar with the difficulties it has been necessary to surmount in order to accomplish it. Congratulations and best wishes for your continued success. Very truly yours, E. W. EDWARDS & SON, J. H. Stoen, Vice-President. Mr. Howard W. Klippert, Mgr. Catholic Courier, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York. Dear Mr. Klippert:

On the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the publication of the Catholic Courier under the auspices of the Rochester Diocese, it affords the great pleasure to congratulate you upon the excellent progress of the paper both in circulation and in its presentation. A remarkable piece of work has been done and I am sure that your progress to date foreshadows a brilliant future.

Please accept my best wishes on this occasion. Very sincerely, GILBERT J. C. MCCURDY. SECURITY TRUST COMPANY, Rochester, New York. April 28, 1936. Mr. Howard W. Klippert, Mgr. Catholic Courier, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York. Dear Mr. Klippert:

The writer wishes to extend his sincere congratulations on the occasion of the Fourth Anniversary of the very successful reorganization of your valued publication. The growth in circulation and the presentation of the paper are a credit to you and your organization. Best wishes for your continued success.

Very truly yours, JOHN B. HOWE, Pres. STEWART HANFORD & FROHMAN INC. Advertising, 11 James St., Rochester, N. Y. April 18, 1936. Mr. Howard W. Klippert, Mgr. Catholic Courier, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester, N. Y. My dear Mr. Klippert:
