SUZANNE suggests some thoughts on THE Bonus

WOMEN... It has been said (rephrasing) "The wives and mothers have an interest (or even a finger) in the direction of their husbands' lives." It is a well-known fact that a woman's influence is a powerful one. In a home, she is the center of gravity. Her influence is felt in every corner. She is the one who makes the home a place where life is lived. She is the one who makes the home a place where love is shared. She is the one who makes the home a place where happiness is found. She is the one who makes the home a place where peace is kept. She is the one who makes the home a place where joy is known. She is the one who makes the home a place where life is lived. She is the one who makes the home a place where love is shared. She is the one who makes the home a place where happiness is found. She is the one who makes the home a place where peace is kept. She is the one who makes the home a place where joy is known.
