Late Bishop O'Hern Established Unit Four Years Ago

Three Outdoor Rallies and As Many Conventions Held Since Father Stauder Completed Organization Work; Speakers Bureau Set Up

By ROY W. CRISSY
Secretary, Diocesan Holy Name Union

Visioning the need in the Diocese of Rochester for a Holy Name Union to foster a spirit of co-operation among the Holy Name Societies in the diocese and to promote increasing interest in Holy Name work, the late Bishop O'Hern of beloved memory, in February, 1932, asked the Rev. F. William Stauder of Holy Redeemer Church to take charge of the organization and promotion of a Holy Name Union.

Father Stauder called a meeting on March 14, 1932 of delegates from various parishes for the purpose of organizing the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union. At that meeting, an executive committee was chosen to formulate plans for the purpose of bringing the Holy Name Societies into a closer union.

First Officers

The members of the Executive Committee chosen on April 18, 1932 were: Spiritual Director, Father Stauder; Assistant Spiritual Director, the Rev. Arthur F. Florack; President, B. Edward Shlesinger; Vice President, William G. Wynn; vice President, Charles J. Knapp; vice President, Peter Connolly; Secretary, Roy W. Crissy; Financial Secretary, Andrew Wuest; Treasurer, Joseph Antolina and Marshal, John W. Diringer.

The first effort of the newly organized Union was the magnificent Holy Name Rally held at Red Wing Stadium, Rochester, on June 12, 1932. Over 16,000 Holy Name men from all parts of the diocese participated in that grand spectacle.

List Speakers

In the fall of 1932, many requests were received for speakers at Holy Name meetings. These requests resulted in the formation of a Holy Name Union Speakers Bureau. Through this Bureau, any Holy Name society now has available a number of able laymen who are well versed in Catholic teachings and who are capable of presenting the Catholic viewpoint on present day problems. Some of the men listed with the Speakers Bureau are: Former County Judge, Philip H Donnelly, of St. Monica's Holy Name Society, President of the Union. B. Edward Shlesinger, also president of St. Ambrose Holy Name society; Vice President of the Union, Norman A. O'Brien, also president of Holy Rosary Holy Name Society and Charles A. Tucker, Chancellor of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus. This Bureau has contributed materially to the program of Catholic Action in the diocese and to the general success of the Union.

Keep Anniversary

The 500th anniversary of the Holy Name Society was observed on January 8, 1933 by a series of winter rallies in central churches. On that day, over 10,000 Holy Name men received Holy Communion in their own parish churches in the morning and returned in the afternoon to central churches to take part in uniform services. These rallies again proved that interest in Holy Name work had been aroused.

The first annual convention of the Union was held at Columbus Civic Center on March 12, 1933 and was attended by 300 delegates and spiritual directors. Elmira carried the honors of the day with eleven delegates from one parish.

The first election of officers for the Union took place at this time and the following were named for the ensuing two years: President, B Edward Shlesinger; Vice President, Norman A. O'Brien; Vice President, William G Wynn; Vice President, Charles J Knapp; Secretary, Andrew Wuest, Treasurer, Joseph Antolina, Marshal, John W. Diringer, Vice President of the Auburn Deanery, William McLane; Vice President of the Geneva Deanery, T. Edward Bickle; Vice President of the Corning Deanery, Richard McElligott; Vice President of the Elmira Deanery, T. Francis O'Dea.

Deanery Directors Named

On April 1, 1933, Father Stauder announced the appointment by Bishop O'Hern of spiritual directors for the four other deaneries as follows the Rev. L. A. Jones, Auburn; the Rev. John J. Healy, Geneva; the Rev. Daniel A. McCarthy, Elmira; and the Rev. Lawrence Gannon, Corning.

The second annual open-air rally was held in Red Wing Stadium, Rochester, Sunday, June 11, 1933. The rally was dedicated to the memory of the late Bishop O'Hern and again Holy Name men gave an outstanding demonstration of their Catholic Faith. The principal clerical speaker was the Rev. Thomas F Conlon, O.P., of New York, National Director of Holy Name Societies; and the principal lay speaker was Alexander I. Rorke of New York.

During the winter of 1933, the Union decided that a Spiritual Bouquet for the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney, now Bishop of Rochester, would be an excellent way in which to show our Bishop that the Holy Name Societies are an active force in the diocese. On the second Sunday of January, 1934, nearly 7,000 Holy Name men offered their Holy Communions and Masses for the intention and general welfare of Archbishop Mooney.

Elmira Union Elects

In March, 1934, the Elmira Deanery Union was organized, with the following officers: Spiritual Director, the Rev. Daniel A. McCarthy; President, Clarence M. Kennedy; Vice President, Dr. Walter C. Ervin; Secretary, Thomas H. Dean
