SODALTALK

Recording the Activities of Rochester Parish Sodalities Union

"AS RADICAL AS CHRIST"

Twenty new members were received into S. S. Peter and Paul Sodality on Sunday June 28. A procession of sodalities and soldiers marched from the school to the Church where a candlelight ceremony and the reception took place. The Rev. Roy Murphy, Director of the Sacred Heart League of Holy Family Parish was the guest speaker.

Under the chairmanship of Miss Eleanor Finn the Sodality has been running a series of Bingo parties to raise funds to send a representative to the Summer School of Catholic Action. We are sure that some one will be there. Where there is a will you know.

Sodality congratulations are extended to the new officers. President Miss Katherine Schantz. Vice President Miss Mary McInerney. Recording Secretary Miss Rita Donohue. Treasurer Miss Eleanor Finn.

Here is something new in the way of Summer Social for the Sodalists. S. S. Peter and Paul Sodalists are planning to take a trip to Conesus. In fact the Sodalists would welcome some fellow Sodalists to come also.

St. Bridget Sodality is certainly taking advantage of the summer months to get together. They have already had a hot-dog roast at Seneca Park and are now planning a picnic for [illegible]. The plans for this are not quite completed but as soon as we [illegible] more we will let you know.

Prize to the slogan: The Sodality is the right hand of the Priest. Holy Apostles' Sodalists did a fine bazar held by the [illegible] recently. They made the Real Food boom.

Among the outstanding members of the Union are those girls who assisted at Helen Gannett's shower for the purpose of cutting out patterns for the Summer. Ye Corr is glad to see Lucy's which the Sodality Union is sponsoring.

We congratulate Nazareth College on their two delegates to the Sodalists Convention in St. Louis. Congratulations and best wishes as well as prayers go out to the [illegible] as they leave their [illegible] to the Motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Joseph on July 4. We are proud of the two Cons among the number of the Sodalities to different orders. We thank [illegible] for both to have a Sodalist [illegible] to pray with us and to [illegible] and to [illegible] as well as to the Sodalities and book

Story Of Francis Cullinan

One Christmas the teacher arranged for the children to draw out of a box the names of their schoolmates to give gifts to. Francis Cullinan drew "Susie Tibbs," a little girl who was very poor and who seemed to have no friends. His mother helped him pick out a present for Susie at the 5c-10c-25c store. Then she bought a beautiful teacher to give to Susie and at Christmas many gifts came to the Tibbs home, and Susie could go back to school with a lovely warm coat and cap. Francis' little brother Billy was not doing well in school, so Francis was helping him with his studies.

[illegible] Billy [illegible] Francis. "I [illegible] bought [illegible] cakes."

"We [illegible] work [illegible] said Francis.

And Billy [illegible] spelling and tables.

"I [illegible] spelling lesson," said Francis.

Bill showed him the list of words on page 21.

"Now, spell them. When you can, you know them, Bill," said Francis.

So Bill started spelling.

When he learned it he told Francis. And Francis asked him to spell the words. Bill did. He did not make one mistake.

"Now the tables," said Francis.

"It's the six tables," said Bill.

"Learn it," said Francis, "and when you know it tell me."

So Bill learned the six tables. Then Francis made him six.

Then they played with the trains.

"Bill Cullinan spell house," said Sister Pauline the next morning.

Bill stood up. He said

"H o u s e house."

Sister Pauline looked surprised. So did the class. For if Francis had not helped Bill one night before he might have said

"H o u s e."

In the afternoon the class had the tables.

"What are six sevens, Bill Cullinan?" called Sister Pauline.

And Bill said,

"42."

Then he grinned. He knew that Sister Pauline was surprised. He knew that the class was surprised. And Sister was smiling to herself.

I wonder what has happened Bill Cullinan knows his lessons today. But he won't know them tomorrow."

But Bill did know his lessons the next day. He knew them every day after that. For Francis made him do his homework every night right after supper.

CARMELITE GETS HER VEIL IN FIRST PROFESSION HERE

A Lawrence Mass girl received the black veil of the Discalced Carmelites Sunday in the first solemn profession of vows made at the Carmelite Monastery here.

She was Veronica Colans who will be known in religion as Sister Joseph.

The Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney celebrated Mass and delivered the sermon. Assisting him at the services were Dr. Wilfred T. Creagh of St. Bernard Seminary, the Rev. Leo A. Smith of Immaculate Conception Church and the Rev. Paul F. Healey O.S.A. prior of St. Thomas Monastery at Villanova.

The Carmelite Tea under the direction of Marie Keeber Barbum furnished the music with Arline McKague at the organ.

Pour boiling water over apples which are to be cooked; they will peel much easier.

Sour milk beaten into mayonnaise dressing gives the dressing a delicious flavor.
