Schedule Ball Game
At Knight's Outing

Irish members of Rochester Council Knights of Columbus, will meet German members in a ball game, featuring the first stag outing of the Council, Saturday afternoon, July 11, at Inspiration Point. The ball game will begin a series of athletic events at 2:30 o'clock. Automobiles will convey the knights from Columbus Civic Center from 1:30 until 2 p. m. Earl F. Harrington heads the outing committee.

KNIGHTS NAME DE WEAVER FOR SECOND TERM

NEWARK With the unanimous re-election of Grand Knight Victor De Weaver, Newark Council, Knights of Columbus entered the 1935-1937 year with plans for an even more successful year of activities than the one just ended.

Electing with Grand Knight De Weaver were: Deputy Grand Knight, Danford Eaton, Chancellor, Charles Caboor, Recorder, Augustus Martin, Financial Secretary, Bernard De Pauw, Warden, John Scortall, Advocate, William D. O'Connell, Treasurer, Bernard Vanderbrook, Inside Guard, George Topping, Outside Guard, Orville Martin, Trustee for three years, Christian Witterholt, Trustee, Howard Franklin and Edward De Weaver.

Delegates to the State Convention in Geneva in 1937 will be Victor De Weaver, D. A. Eaton, alternates, Edward Volkert and Howard Franklin; Delegates to Central New York Chapter, Charles Caboor, Peter Bohusz, John Vanderbrook and John Shortall.

Chairman Thomas Healey of the Catholic Action committee has inaugurated a series of readings on the Encyclicals of Pope Leo XIII. First conducted on June 23 was on the subject of "Labor."

A creditable year of activity in Catholic Action, fraternal and charitable fields just closed is reported for Newark Council by retiring Recorder Peter S. Bohusz.

Thomas Healey was chairman for the promoting of Catholic activities. Christmas Tree exercises for the children of St. Michael's parish were held by the Council on Dec. 22 in co-operation with the daughters of Isabella. A communion breakfast was held for members and guests on May 3. The knights received Holy Communion at St. Michael's Church. District Deputy John A. Doyle of Rochester was guest speaker at the breakfast.

The knights co-operated in a successful drive for the CATHOLIC COURIER conducted here. The drive was successful due to the efforts of the Rev. John J. Ganey pastor, the Rev. James C. Lane, his assistant, and Chairman Healey of the knights. Boys of the parish competed against the girls.

A delegation of Newark Council attended the Laymen's Retreat at St. Bernard's Seminary.

So all activities of the year included Charitable Bazaar at Grange Hall, a Father and Sons Banquet, Dec. 11, 1935 with Father Ganey in charge, a picnic at the Eaton-Vickers resort, a Dutch party and an Irish party in the Council rooms.

Inspection of the Council by Special Agent William A. Wells showed Newark Council financially flourishing and outstanding for its size in New York State.

Degree work was entered into in Auburn and Canandaigua.

Lawn Festival Planned
GENEVA Parishioners of St. Francis de Sales Church have been invited to meet at a general gathering of workers on Friday evening at eight o'clock in the school hall to discuss plans for the annual lawn festival to be held in the near future. "Children and committee needs for the event will be named at this time.

Plan Summer Fete
HORNELL The Rev. Ignatius X. Cameron announces that plans are in progress for the annual summer festival sponsored by St. Ignatius Loyola Church. The event will take place August 4 and 5 on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Weyand of Crosby Street.

No committees have been announced as yet. Although Father Francis Hester has been appointed active chairman under the general supervision of Father Cameron. Although these festivals have been held here before this is expected to be the outstanding one of its kind. It is one of the principal ways of taking care of the added obligations of the parish. It is the first affair of this kind since the completion of the new church, and all members will be expected to participate in some way to make this a big success.

St. Stephen's Lawn Social Held
GENEVA - Approximately 1,500 persons attended the annual lawn social of St. Stephen's Church held on the High School lawn Tuesday afternoon and evening, June 30. Bright lights, colorful booths, and lively music featured the event and made the grounds a most attractive and popular spot of entertainment.

The ice-cream tables were in charge of a committee of the ladies of the parish and the booths were tended by the men of the parish.
