1000 ATTEND LAWN SOCIAL IN WAVERLY

Parish To Honor Patron
on Feast; Pastor Conducts 3 Study Clubs

WAVERLY.—About 1000 people attended a lawn social sponsored by the Altar and Rosary Society of the Holy Family Church on Friday evening, July 17. This is the first festival of the kind ever held in over fifteen years.

The outstanding feature of the evening was the program of music presented by the Valley Boys' Band. The musicians did in gay style, lending a pleasing effect to the evening. The program featured the Valley Boys' Band, the St. Joseph's Band, and the St. Joseph's Band. The crowd was so large that the supply of refreshments was exhausted at many points and people from the neighboring parishes helped to make the affair a success.

The general chairman was Mrs. Anna O'Farrell, president of the Altar and Rosary Society.

WAVERLY.—Under the direction of the pastor of St. James Church, the Rev. Edward J. Lyons, three study clubs consisting of boys in the Junior and Senior High Schools met every Friday evening for classes. These boys are being instructed by the local seminarians. For this season the Mass is being studied. About forty boys are attending these classes.

WAVERLY.—Catholics here are preparing to honor their patron, St. James, on the feast, Saturday, July 25. At 7:00 a. m. Mass will be said by the pastor, the Rev. Ed. Lyons. The feast will be marked by a Mass of St. James will be read to the people for veneration. Throughout the day the bells will be rung for veneration.

3-DAY BAZAAR FOR HOSPITAL SUCCESSFUL

St. Hyacinth's Pastor
Honored on Tenth Anniversary by Parishioners

By M. R. BLUMBRICK

Catholic Centre Service
AUBURN.—In a gay setting of American flags, banners and ornamental lights, a successful bazaar was conducted here for Mercy Hospital opening Tuesday, July 14, and continuing for three days favored by ideal weather.

The large sum of money realized through the bazaar will be added to the Mercy Hospital fund.

On Tuesday evening a band concert was presented by the Polish Falcons Band under the direction of Frederick Gallego and a feature on Wednesday evening was a program rendered by the Drum and Bugle Corps of Myndorae High School, American Legion.

Each evening numerous booths were in full session, special attractions added to the enjoyment of the patrons and thirty prizes were distributed.

A special juvenile matinee was held Wednesday afternoon. Many of the talented local children took part in the entertainment and prizes were awarded.

The festivity closed in a blaze of activity with the disposal of all the major articles. A feature prize was awarded to John J. Lea, widely known Auburn business man.

Judges who awarded the prize included Francis C. Cuddy, grand knight of the Auburn Knights of Columbus; Joseph Gann, commander of Myndorae Rice Post, American Legion; Councilman James D. Quill, representing the Local Order of Pilgrims; Thomas Poole, representing the International Order of Eagles; and Mr. J. J. LeVan, President of the Auburn Polish Falcons, and Wilbert LeVan of the Royal Order of Moose.

AUBURN.—Parishioners of St. Hyacinth's Church and friends assembled on Sunday evening in Falcon Hall for a testimonial program and banquet in honor of the Rev. Jerome Holabowicz, O.M.C., pastor, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of his pastorate here.

The affair was begun at 7 o'clock. During the dinner sessions were rendered by the Polish Falcon Band.

Ludwig Naskiewicz, president of Auburn Nest, National Polish Falcons, opened the program and introduced the toastmaster, Attorney John Naskiewicz.

Speakers for the occasion were the Guest of Honor, The Rev. Father Julius of Bradford, New York; Councilman Harry R. Melega and Joseph H. Bergan.

Father Jerome, the principal speaker, reviewed his pastorate at St. Hyacinth's, stressing his major points, and indicating the achievements accomplished by his parishioners.

AUBURN.—An article on "Catholic Information" published in the Auburn Citizen-Advertiser, a daily newspaper, and provided by the Auburn Sodality Union has received recognition in the current issue of Our Sunday Visitor, edited at Huntington, Indiana.

The article is entitled WANTED: A JOB and is a defense of and an appeal for Catholic Sisterhoods.

It is edifying that this praiseworthy work of submitting Catholic information to a secular newspaper originated some time ago by The Rev. Donald M. Cleary, O.M.C., drawing attention even beyond New York State.

A "THANK YOU" FROM Old Topper ON HIS SECOND BIRTHDAY

Old Topper is two years old this week. Yet in that short time—due to your wonderful patronage—good old Topper Ale has become an outstanding favorite. And so rapidly is the demand for this fine old ale increasing that we have had to triple bottling facilities during the past month. Yes, Old Topper has really grown in these first two years. To you... the people of Rochester and vicinity... we express our thanks.

Old Topper Ale is so good because it is brewed the old fashioned way—from choice malt and a blend of Bohemian and domestic hops. That is the time-honored method for brewing ale of high quality and distinctive flavor. But time has brought many improvements in brewing equipment. We keep step with progress by using only the most modern and sanitary utensils available. This same spirit of progress has led Old Topper to other achievements...

FIRST in Rochester to provide a special Summer Brew. Your enthusiastic reception and continued preference have made it a real success.

FIRST to provide Identification Knobs for all restaurants and tap rooms in this vicinity having Old Topper on draught—for their convenience in serving and the convenience of patrons in ordering.

FIRST in Rochester to provide a complete range of 5 bottle sizes—from 12 oz. Stubbies to full 32 oz. quarts.

FAMOUS For Quality

FIRST choice of thousands for its full body, distinctive flavor and excellence of ingredients, justifying the slogan "Famous for Quality."
