Move for State Aid Grows. Editorial Says

There is a swelling number of Catholics and in no other country are working for State Aid for Catholic religious education. It is interesting to learn from the Government that the Catholic teaching Sister is the only one who are short of religious in the United States. They are held by a union of the State may deprive our schools of their religious atmosphere.

Historic Pageant To Reenact Lives Of Jesuit-Saints

MIDLAND, ONT. (NC)—An elaborate pageant with a cast of 100 persons will reenact the lives of the Jesuit Martyr-Saints at Martyrs' Shrine here August 1, 2 and 3. Eighteen tepees and Indian wigwags are being constructed and a Huron chapel on the Shrine grounds is in preparation for this outdoor historical spectacle which will commemorate the tenth anniversary of the building of the present church as well as the three hundredth anniversary of the arrival of Father Jogues and Garter in Huronia around the Georgian Bay.
