THE BISHOP AND HIS PROMISE

It is always difficult to lose something we have gained by hard work and by sacrifice. This is equally true with the missionaries. They work and work and sometimes success comes to them and then they find it difficult to hold on to their victory.

STATUE OF THE LITTLE FLOWER

In the Near East, the Little Flower St. Therese is very popular. This is as it should be, for she is the Patroness of the missions.

REMEMBER YOUR PARENTS

In the rush of every day life we often forget persons and things that we ought to remember. It is true but sad to say that frequently Catholics forget to pray even for their deceased parents.

TWO DOLLARS

Two dollars will keep a missionary going for nearly three days, will keep him active around his mission. Can you spare two dollars?

A BIG WORRY

There are many things for the missionary to do at this time of the year. His particular worry just now is the school. He must put it in shape for the next term. Will you help him?

FOR ONE MISSIONARY: Every missionary needs certain things for offering the Holy Sacrifice. Here are some: a Chalice, a Missal, a Set of Vestments. You can give all three to some missionary for Forty Dollars. Make some poor priest happy by giving this gift in honor of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
