Miss Russell Says: Girl Finds Happiness Far From The Cities

By SUSAN RUSSELL My dear girls: The other day it was my good fortune, while on vacation, to visit a quaint cotton mill section "on the other side of the mountain," as it is designated... Elizabeth did not know, and I did not tell her, what an oasis in life's desert that home was to a world-weary heart...

SUZANNE'S SHOPPING SERVICE "As One Woman To Another"

THE busy woman of to-day would surely be complaining needlessly if she were to cry "I cannot go—I haven't a thing to wear." To-day it is an easy matter to have a smart wardrobe—ready to meet all emergencies, whether social or business demands it. The dress shopper is most enticing in their lovely array of frocks for all occasions. The whole question simmers down to the choosing of an hour or two to take time out for shopping. SUPERFLUOUS HAIR It is most essential that the woman of charm and poise be free from unwanted hair. To remove this condition requires skill and long experience. CHARLOTTE WYATT... 42 East Ave. ANN CULHANE DRESS SALON... 572 Lake Street. TUNICS are going to be very good morning, noon and night. Over pencil skirts, blouses, blouses, blouses will be swinging wide and the waists will be slightly higher and the belts will be wider.
