Father Abraham, who came into the Church on the first of August, 1936. He brought with him 116 families of his former hurch. The remaining 128 families he hopes will become converts to the Catholic Church in the near future. I must immediately provide a modest church for this new parish. Four more Jacobite priests are in communication with me and are very seriously considering bening Catholics. If they come into the Church. I must build them chapels for their villages, for when the Jacobites become Catholics, they roust give up their churches.

"I therefore pray that you do everything possible to help me. Within the next seven or eight months I must build at least ten very modest but substantial churches.
