C. D. of A. To Launch Membership Campaign

Newark, N. J.—Sounding a call to the 200,000 members of the order and 25,000 young girls, Junior members, Miss Mary C. Duffy, Regent of the Catholic Daughters of America, today announced plans for a great international campaign throughout the North American jurisdiction of the order to enroll additional Catholic women and girls in its ranks.

Preliminary arrangements for the international campaign, to be known as "Today's Challenge to Catholic Womanhood," are being made in the 2,000 courts of the order.

The movement will open Sunday, November 16, with a simultaneous activity in which all of the courts of the organization will take part and thousands of volunteer women and girls affiliated with the C. D. of A. will begin the work of interviewing acceptable and eligible women and girls for enrollment in the order.

In her message, Miss Duffy stated: "The supreme board of national officers and directors of the Catholic Daughters of America, realizing that the enormity of events transpiring in Spain and other late nations of the world is a huge and a threat to all in the world, have voted to be our 200,000 members and juniors in a campaign to recapture the style of Communism and to make our order a force in having Catholic women and girls in its ranks.

CATHOLIC WILLS SOLVE MISSION PROBLEMS

The instinct is strong to keep what you have. Yet when death summons we must go to the grave, clutching in our hands only that which we have given away. If you feel you cannot share your earthly possessions now with God, perhaps you will be mindful of Him and His mission when drawing up your last will. You can be sure that what you leave to carry on Mission work will merit a blessing on your soul, and cause you to be held in better Christ long after your death. Think then of our mission when making or changing your last will. Kindly use this formula:

"I bequeath to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, N. Y. the sum of _____

Masses For Deceased

At this time every thoughtful Catholic has Masses offered for the deceased members of his family. Do not forget your parents and relatives who have been called out of this life. Our missionary priests will offer these Masses. If you ask them to do this, you will help your deceased and also the missions.

THE PRIEST AND THE DYING

It is difficult for us to think of our deceased without, at the same time, recalling the circumstances of their death. We remember the visit of the priest to the sick person. He first heard the confession and then administered the Sacrament of Penance. Holy Communion was then given in the form of Holy Viaticum and then the sick person was anointed. This last was the Sacrament of Extreme Unction. The Apostolic Blessing to which is attached at the moment of death a Plenary Indulgence was then given by the priest. Surely the dying person was well prepared and fortified. As we kneel during the administration of the Sacraments, our grief was somewhat lessened because we knew that everything was being done to prepare this person for Eternity.

ALTAR AS MEMORIAL

Why not give an Altar as a memorial to your deceased parents? This Altar would make possible the dignified offering of the Holy Sacrifice. It would be a decent resting place for our Eucharistic Lord. Fifty dollars is the amount for the erection of an Altar in a mission chapel.

AN INVITATION

We invite all our readers to support the Holy Father's mission to the Near East. Become a member of this Association. The dues are One Dollar a year. There are no special appeals.

ALL SOULS

All Souls Day, November 2, is certainly a special day for each one who can be entirely unselfish of his deceased relations and friends. We know and believe that by our prayers and good works we can help those who are suffering in Purgatory. We can help shorten the time of their suffering by offering the merits of our good works in satisfaction for the debt they owe. Surely then we ought to pray for our deceased, have Masses offered for them and apply to their souls some of the Indulgences we try to gain.

ORIENTAL RITES

If you are interested to know something about the Oriental Rites read our new pamphlet. It tells the difference between the Catholic Church and the separated churches. It explains such terms as Syrian Catholics, Greek Orthodox, etc. This pamphlet is free.

THE CHILDREN

When we give a child a Catholic training we are doing something that will last for years. A child would lose a toy or a gift, but he can't escape the effects of a Catholic education. Will you help our mission schools? Five dollars will take care of a child for six months.

A CHALICE

Ten dollars will purchase a plain but serviceable Chalice in the Near East. We need many for our new missions.

DECEASED PARENTS

Why not enroll your deceased parents for one year. Our missionaries offer fifteen thousand Masses every year for those enrolled.

FOR THE FAMILY

All our members, the living and the deceased, share in Fifteen Thousand Masses every year. Besides these Masses, a special Mass is offered at the Vatican every day for the deceased. Why not enroll the entire family, the living and the deceased. Our Family membership is divided into two groups: (a) Husband and Wife and Children or (b) Brothers and Sisters and Parents. The deceased are included in both groups. The offering for Family Membership is Five Dollars a year in either group no matter how many enrolled.

Draft Prominent Men To Organize New Scout Troops

An effort is being made by the Rochester Council Boy Scouts of America to make scouting available to more boys. To promote new troops throughout the city prominent local men interested in the development of boys have been drafted to serve on a Troop Organization Committee.

Herman Cohn is chairman, assisted by the following group chairman: American Legion, Charles Feist; Protestant Churches, Jack Keckum; Catholic Churches, Harry B. Crowley; Jewish Group, Ira Beran; Italian Group, Joseph Alessi.

The work of the committee is to secure suitable sponsorship and adequate meeting places for new troops and to supervise their organization and development.
