Crosby Frisian Fur Company Opens New Store and Factory

Forty-seven years after its founding almost to the day, finds the Crosby-Frisian Fur Co. in its beautiful new store and factory at 752 Lake Ave.

It was in the year 1889 that G. N. Crosby, the founder of the Crosby-Frisian Fur Co. started dressing and manufacturing furs in this city.

In the new location the firm is well equipped to handle fur storage, cleaning, repairing and new coats.

City or out-of-town customers are received in an entirely new and modernly equipped store where models are on display at all times.

It is urged that a visit be made to this new store located on the busiest street in Rochester. Ample parking space is available in the firm's own parking lot adjoining the store and factory.

The Crosby-Frisian Fur Co. is ready at all times to render service and offer value on work new or repaired.

Fur dressing and taxidermy will be handled as usual. Such work will be taken in at the side entrance to the factory.
