

Urge Full Attendance At Industrial Conference Here

Jesuit Sees America Asleep To 'Red Peril'

By MARGARET BEAHON

"The American people are asleep on a volcano," Thus spoke the Rev. Francis P. LeBuffe, S.J., business manager of "America," and well-known in Catholic literary circles in an Artistic Day address before the student body and faculty of Nazareth College.

Father LeBuffe declared that "the old bomb-throwing anarchists and Communist are out-of-date."

"Thy Kingdom Come"

So you petition daily in the Lord's prayer:

Help then to extend God's kingdom by assisting the missionaries laboring in the home and foreign fields.

And in making your sincere prayer be sure to mention membership—ordinary, special, or perpetual, according to your means—in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, the Holy Father's world-wide organization.

You can also help by remembering the Society in your will or by Conditional Gifts, bringing you from 3 to 5, a year as long as you live

SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

Inquiries cheerfully answered by REV. LEO C. MOONEY, Director, COLUMBUS BUILDING, 50 Chestnut Street, Stone 1492

Catholic Near East Welfare Association

His Eminence Patrick Cardinal Hayes, President
Very Rev. Magr. James B. O'Reilly, Ph.D., National Secretary
Rev. John J. Corrigan, Assistant Secretary

An Altar

We receive very few offerings for Altars. Yet Altars are very badly needed in the Near East missions. We are using for Altars—boards resting on boxes in the mission chapels. Surely this should not be. Fifty Dollars will purchase an Altar for a Chapel.

UNIVERSAL OBLIGATION

When Our Divine Lord said to His Apostles "Go ye into the whole world and preach the Gospel to every creature." He gave a command. The Church has always obeyed that command and has always been engaged in mission activity.

Bishops, priests and religious are found in every quarter of the world working and spending themselves in teaching the truths of Eternal Life. They have given everything to advance the Kingdom of God amongst men. Something more is needed. Almightly God expects us, each and every one of us, to cooperate in this work.

Bishops and priests may plan well for their missions and parishes, but unless they are supported by the laity, their planning will not succeed. Just as a pastor needs the help of his parishioners, so does the missionary need the help of those who are at home.

We ask you to think this over. We ask you to cooperate. The obligation of preaching belongs primarily to the clergy, but the laity has the obligation of making it possible for the Church to carry out its mission.

Bishops and priests may plan well for their missions and parishes, but unless they are supported by the laity, their planning will not succeed. Just as a pastor needs the help of his parishioners, so does the missionary need the help of those who are at home.

We suggest this week that you ask the missionaries to offer Mass for the spiritual and temporal welfare of all the members of your family.

YOUR SHARE
All our members, the living and the deceased, share in fifteen thousand Masses every year. For the deceased members a Mass is offered every morning at the Vatican.

ST. JUDE
One of the Patrons of this Association is St. Jude, the Apostle. St. Jude was born in the Near East and worked there all his life. Our priests are working where he worked and are his successors. St. Jude must be interested in our work. Send something to our missionaries in honor of St. Jude.

A TOKEN
The lines used on the Altar are very important. On the Corporal, the Blessed Sacrament rests. All the lines must be clean and in some way worthy of their use. A complete set of Altar Linens can be given to a mission chapel for Five Dollars. Would you make this gift as a token of love for the Holy Sacrifice?

BE A MISSIONARY

When you interest one friend in our work, you are a missionary in your own way. Every friend we have makes us stronger. Tell your friends about our work. Give them one of our new pamphlets. We will send a few if you write for them.

WHICH ONE
We need many more missionaries. You can give one of these to the missionaries for Ten Dollars. Write and tell us which you select.

BECOME A MEMBER
Membership in this Missionary Society is so easy. We do not bother our friends with letters every month. We write just once a year asking for Y. Y. visited Sister Nolasco during her illness and Miss Mae G. tion to the sick during the pioneer Joseph's Academy, was with her. The many who are now men and aunt to the end of the last illness, women who were taught by her Sister Nolasco was the last of a will always revere her memory. family of fourteen children. She was a beautiful character, always born Feb. 11, 1854, in Rochester and gentle, simple and ter, N. Y., and entered St. Joseph's prayerful.

Send all communications to

Catholic Near East Welfare Association
480 Lexington Avenue at 49th Street New York, N. Y.

FATHER FOERY APPOINTED TO CHAIRMANSHIP

Program Outlined At Committee Meeting of Clergy and Laity

An appeal to all Catholics to participate in the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems here November 30 and December 1 was sounded at a committee meeting this week.

Appointment of the Rev. Walter A. Foery, Diocesan Director of Catholic Charities as chairman of the local committee was announced by the Rt. Rev. Magr. William M. Hart, vicar-general of the diocese.

Monignor Hart spoke in behalf of the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney who is in Washington attending the annual meeting of Bishops.

Speaking to a representative group of clergy and laity gathered at the Columbus Civic Centre Tuesday evening, Monignor Hart told of the Archbishop's deep interest in the conference and explained the necessity for "Catholics as a whole to familiarize themselves with the papal program of social reconstruction."

Chairman Naged also announced the appointment by the Archbishop of the Rev. William Byrne of Ithaca, Rt. Rev. James Griffin of Corning, the Rt. Rev. Walter J. Lee of Geneva, and the Very Rev. John A. Conway of Auburn, as chairmen of committees to be organized in their respective districts to promote interest in the Conference.

Father Foery made a stirring appeal for attendance at the Conference and interest in its program "This Conference," he said, "has been characterized by its thoughtful, temperate approach to economic problems."

"Its procedure has been wise in that in dealing with vital industrial problems, it has different points of view presented, and always provides a speaker who has given thoughtful study to the program set forth in the Encyclicals of Leo XIII and Pius XI, and who can point out the fundamental Catholic principles, which should be applied to the solution of industrial and social ills."

Field Secretary speaks
Miss Lanna E. Breaute of Washington, Field Secretary of the National Catholic Council, Rochester to assist the local committee, spoke briefly of the work.

She told of the many conferences held throughout the country sponsored by Bishops. She said the remarkable growth of the Conference, its consistent and steady program, of disseminating the teachings of the Encyclicals which she declared, has had noticeable results.

A brief outline of the program revealed that leading authorities in Catholic social thought will be in Rochester for this Conference which will feature three sessions each day, morning, afternoon and evening. All sessions will be at the Columbus Civic Centre, except the closing session, which will follow a dinner meeting at the Seneca Hotel.

Employer To Speak
At the opening session on Monday, November 30th, Doctor George Brown, of Seneca College, Greenburgh, Pennsylvania, will give the first address his subject "A Survey of the Present Economic Situation." Mr. Bernard J. Rothwell, President of the Bay State Milling Company will speak as an employer and student of social problems on what he considers "The Essentials of Economic Progress."

The closing address of the morning will be made by the Reverend John J. Collins of Albany, who will give a resume of the Encyclical, its indictment and measures which it advocates should be adopted.

The opening session will give the way for the discussion which will follow covering "Legislative Measures" "Economic and Legislative" and related subjects.

On Tuesday, December 1, discussion will center on some system of personal relations, advantages and disadvantages of dealing with union labor, standards of the Encyclical on wages and collective bargaining, organized social justice, and Catholic action in relation to industrial problems.

Dinner Scheduled
The Conference will reach its climax on Tuesday evening at the closing session and dinner meeting to be held at the Seneca Hotel, at

(Continued on Page 12)

Diocesan Council Closes Meeting With Adoption of 17 Resolutions

Women Take Firm Stand On Seventeen Different Subjects

The Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women closed its sixth annual convention with the adoption of seventeen resolutions embodying a definite stand on many vital questions of the day.

Miss Cecelia M. Yawman was re-elected president for the sixth successive year.

Other officers of the council also named for another term. These will be found listed in the Council's column on page four of this issue.

The council maintained its definite stand against proposed legislation to legalize the dissemination of birth control information.

It urged the support of religious educational schools, and asked all Catholic women to buy goods bearing the Consumers' Protective Label.

Another resolution called for the support of the Catholic Press in general and the CATHOLIC COURIER in particular. The text of these resolutions follows in full.

IX—WOMEN'S CRUSADE
We pledge the support of our affiliated organizations to the National Committee known as the Women's Crusade for Human Needs.

IX—RELIEF
We desire in every state providing federal state, county or municipal funds for the relief of those in distress, provisions that safeguard the right of the private, charitable or welfare agency.

We commend the attitude of the Federal Government in recognizing the value and importance of religion in the Civilian Conservation Corps Camps.

We urge our affiliated societies, in the spirit of cooperation, to provide suitable activities and suitable reading for Catholic boys in these camps.

X—NATIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SERVICE
Fourteen years ago, the school was committed to the care of the N.C.W. We urge its maintenance and its expansion to meet new needs to a challenge to us all.

We urge its support by all our affiliated organizations.

XI—SOCIAL JUSTICE
We deplore as contrary to the spirit of Christianity and to the ideals of American Democracy the denial of cultural or economic opportunity to any resident of the country on the basis of color or race.

We recommend an appreciative study of the cultural and intellectual achievements of these racial groups.

XII—RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION
We observe with sorrow the persecution of religion in Russia, Germany, Spain, and at our own doors, in Mexico.

We extend our sympathy to our persecuted brethren and encourage them to persevere in their struggle to keep the faith of their fathers.

We recommend both persecuted and persecutors to the prayers of our members.

XIII—PEACE
The present international situation in many countries is most serious, and rising conflict among certain nations would seem to indicate a world catastrophe.

These conditions indicate a total disregard of the Christian principles underlying human relationships, whether as of individuals or of nations.

We urge our Catholic women to become familiar with the Catholic viewpoint on world problems in order to serve as effective and practical advocates of World Peace so strongly urged by our Holy Father, Pius XI, the Vicar of the Prince of Peace.

XIV—SAFEGUARDING OUR TRADITIONS
The discontent in our land has offered a favorable opportunity for the propagandist of subversive social and economic theories. Let us counter them with persistent, clear promulgation of the official Christian teaching of the Church, so that at least Catholic youths may not be misguided.

XV—PRESS
We are grateful for the N.C.W. News Service, established by the United States Government, which makes available prompt reliable information about important Catholic events throughout the world.

Realizing that our Catholic Press can only succeed through

CECELIA YAWMAN

VII—WOMEN'S CRUSADE
We pledge the support of our affiliated organizations to the National Committee known as the Women's Crusade for Human Needs.

IX—RELIEF
We desire in every state providing federal state, county or municipal funds for the relief of those in distress, provisions that safeguard the right of the private, charitable or welfare agency.

We commend the attitude of the Federal Government in recognizing the value and importance of religion in the Civilian Conservation Corps Camps.

We urge our affiliated societies, in the spirit of cooperation, to provide suitable activities and suitable reading for Catholic boys in these camps.

X—NATIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SERVICE
Fourteen years ago, the school was committed to the care of the N.C.W. We urge its maintenance and its expansion to meet new needs to a challenge to us all.

We urge its support by all our affiliated organizations.

XI—SOCIAL JUSTICE
We deplore as contrary to the spirit of Christianity and to the ideals of American Democracy the denial of cultural or economic opportunity to any resident of the country on the basis of color or race.

We recommend an appreciative study of the cultural and intellectual achievements of these racial groups.

XII—RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION
We observe with sorrow the persecution of religion in Russia, Germany, Spain, and at our own doors, in Mexico.

We extend our sympathy to our persecuted brethren and encourage them to persevere in their struggle to keep the faith of their fathers.

We recommend both persecuted and persecutors to the prayers of our members.

XIII—PEACE
The present international situation in many countries is most serious, and rising conflict among certain nations would seem to indicate a world catastrophe.

These conditions indicate a total disregard of the Christian principles underlying human relationships, whether as of individuals or of nations.

We urge our Catholic women to become familiar with the Catholic viewpoint on world problems in order to serve as effective and practical advocates of World Peace so strongly urged by our Holy Father, Pius XI, the Vicar of the Prince of Peace.

XIV—SAFEGUARDING OUR TRADITIONS
The discontent in our land has offered a favorable opportunity for the propagandist of subversive social and economic theories. Let us counter them with persistent, clear promulgation of the official Christian teaching of the Church, so that at least Catholic youths may not be misguided.

XV—PRESS
We are grateful for the N.C.W. News Service, established by the United States Government, which makes available prompt reliable information about important Catholic events throughout the world.

Realizing that our Catholic Press can only succeed through the practical and personal support of Catholics generally, we pledge ourselves to cooperate by reading and supporting our Catholic newspapers and magazines, particularly our diocesan organ, the Catholic Courier.

XVI—RURAL LIFE
The Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women, through its affiliated organizations, offers to cooperate with any movement to establish better conditions in the rural parishes.

XVII—CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE
The women of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women also offer every assistance according to the ability of its individual women toward the development of the Catechetical program.

FURTHER RESOLUTIONS RESOLVED, That we take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to His Excellency, Most Reverend Edward Mooney, our beloved Bishop, for his presence in our midst and for his inspiring address. We pledge in him the loyalty of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the N.C.W. and promise law-abiding cooperation in any of his projects.

To the Reverend Clergy for their splendid cooperation and assistance in this endeavor.

To our Diocesan Officers, Deacons, Clergy and special committees for the interest, effort and results.

To the Columbus Civic Center management for their efficient and courteous service and assistance in every detail.

To the Press, Catholic and secular, for their splendid publicity.

To Miss Cecelia M. Yawman, our beloved President, for her self and untiring efforts during her six years of service.

To each and everyone who contributed in any way to the success of the Conference.

Miss Yawman Renamed President For Sixth Successive Term

The practical and personal support of Catholics generally, we pledge ourselves to cooperate by reading and supporting our Catholic newspapers and magazines, particularly our diocesan organ, the Catholic Courier.

XVI—RURAL LIFE
The Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women, through its affiliated organizations, offers to cooperate with any movement to establish better conditions in the rural parishes.

XVII—CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE
The women of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women also offer every assistance according to the ability of its individual women toward the development of the Catechetical program.

FURTHER RESOLUTIONS RESOLVED, That we take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to His Excellency, Most Reverend Edward Mooney, our beloved Bishop, for his presence in our midst and for his inspiring address. We pledge in him the loyalty of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the N.C.W. and promise law-abiding cooperation in any of his projects.

To the Reverend Clergy for their splendid cooperation and assistance in this endeavor.

To our Diocesan Officers, Deacons, Clergy and special committees for the interest, effort and results.

To the Columbus Civic Center management for their efficient and courteous service and assistance in every detail.

To the Press, Catholic and secular, for their splendid publicity.

To Miss Cecelia M. Yawman, our beloved President, for her self and untiring efforts during her six years of service.

To each and everyone who contributed in any way to the success of the Conference.

AID COMMUNITY FUND
Chicago-Wisconsin in the Archdiocese of Chicago has received a letter from His Eminence, George Cardinal Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago, containing an appeal to support the Community Fund by generous contributions, in accordance with instructions of the Cardinal-pastor, read the appeal at all the Masses Sunday. The Community Fund expects to reach a total of $1,000,000 to aid the poor and destitute.

Plans Excursion In Lake Priest Walks 20 Miles

OTTAWA—The Rev. J. Deane, of Quebec, returning from a visit to Lake Superior in Northern Ontario, visited a striking incident in the work of his uncle, the Rev. J. M. Collins, M.S.P., being missionary of the north.

Returning from a round of his missions, the well known priest, before going back to Lake Superior, wished to visit another spot situated 20 miles north of the Transcontinental Railway line.

Leaving his plans unexecuted on a small boat, the priest walked the 20 miles to the spot, where he remained for several days.

The priest's mission is to preach the Gospel to the Indians of the north.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

MISSIONARY SEES IN HINDU MOV. CHANCE FOR CHANG

OTTAWA—A great missionary of the north, the Rev. J. M. Collins, M.S.P., is seeing in the Hindu movement a chance for change.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

He has been working in the north for many years, and has won the respect and admiration of the Indians.

YOU CAN ROAST IT BETTER

... IN A MODERN GAS RANGE

No long hours of oven watching—no uncertainty about results when you set the controls of a modern gas range. With these new automatic gas ranges you can get better results and do more cooking with the same amount of gas. Holiday feasts are coming. Let one of these new automatic gas ranges save you time and money.

Read the advertisement "Poetry Triumphs Every Year" in the November issues of McCall's, Ladies Home Journal and American Home.

Rochester Gas & Electric Corp.
89 East Avenue
Made in U.S.A.

Always Popular
ONTARIO IN BOTTLES
Old Copper Snappy
ALE
FAMOUS QUALITY
ROCHESTER BREWING CO. INC.