Leaders Urge Buying Of Christmas Seals

The President and the Governor of this State have issued statements urging the purchase of Christmas seals as a practical means of participation in the winning movement to prevent and control tuberculosis.
 "During the past thirty years of warfare against this disease in our State," said Governor Lehman, "the tuberculosis death rate has declined 70 per cent."
 The work of the County Health Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Association in Monroe County outside of Rochester is made possible by the sale of Christmas seals and bonds now in progress.
