ENCYCLICALS DISCUSSED AT
NAME MEET

Auburn Holy Name Men
Hear Father Groden;
Honor John J. Leo
 By M. E. BLUMRICH
 Catholic Center Service
 Auburn—An address by the Rev.
 Michael B. Groden, pastor of St.
 Vincent de Paul's Church, Corning on "The Industrial Situation in the Light of the Papal Encyclicals," and tribute to John J. Leo for 25 years services as head of the organization featured the annual meeting of the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church here Tuesday.

Interest aroused by the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems just held in Rochester brought many employers and workers on side to the society to the meeting.
 They took part in the discussion following the address of Father Groden.
 Officers for the year 1937 were elected.
 In lauding the work of Mr. Leo, his untiring zeal and enthusiasm in this work were brought out by various speakers.

6-Monthly Elects Officers
 At a meeting held in the Church Hall on Thursday evening, Dec. 10, the Young Ladies' Sodality of St.
 Francis of Assisi Church elected officers for the coming year.
 New officers are: Miss Grace Ca-talano, President; Miss Josephine DeJoy, Vice-President; Miss Rose Barre, Secretary; Miss Betty Marlow, Treasurer.
 On Jan. 7, at a banquet to be held at Lakeside Inn, the new officers will be installed in their respective offices with elaborate ceremonies.
 At the meeting, twelve new members were received into the Sodality. The membership drive which has been in progress for some time was received with satisfaction. The drive will continue for several more months.
 Plans were discussed for a sleigh ride to be held in December under the chairmanship of Miss Gilda Tamburo.

A meeting has been called for Thursday evening which will be conducted by the Rev. Bernard C.
 Hanna, Moderator and Miss Califano to consider plans for a mis-sel show to be held early in the new year.

Hospital Guild Elects Auburn The 13th annual meeting of the Mary Hospital Guild was held on Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce with a large attendance.
 Reports of the various officers and committee heads showed a successful outcome of all projects attempted in 1936 and the outlook bright for increased activities on behalf of the hospital for 1937.
 Following officers were elected for the coming year: Miss Isabel T. Goss, president; Mrs. E. C.
 Baker, first vice-president; Mrs.
 John Foster, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold Wide, assistant secretary; Mrs. Anna Stevens, financial secretary; Mrs. Joseph Bek, assistant Miss Mary Schreder, treasurer; Mrs.
 Agnes Halbritter, Mrs. Mary Crowley, Mrs. M. H. O'Connor, trustees.

A program of entertainment was presented by Miss Jean Waiwen-der, Joseph Siviglia, Miss Helen E. Yoland and Celeste Mrs. Lois Gilbert and Miss Elizabeth Reisdorf.
 Valuable Prints For K. of C.
 Auburn Five valuable and very old French water color prints depicting various scenes in the life of Christopher Columbus were presented to Auburn Council No. 297 Knights of Columbus, by Dr. Harry G. Tripp, a prominent citizen of this city.
 The prints were brought to Auburn many years ago in a covered wagon and were long treasured by the grandfather of Dr. Tripp. The prints were accepted in behalf of the council by an Knight Francis C. Cuddy, who thanked Dr.
 Tripp for his thoughtful and ven-erous gift.
 A class of candidates were to be initiated into the first degree Thursday evening, December 17 at the K. of C. Home.

Plan Christmas Social Auburn Holy Name Society of this city, Notre Dame undergraduate has announced that the Central New York Club of Notre Dame University will have its annual Christmas formal dance Monday evening, Dec. 28 at Club Dickman Tex. Waldorf and his orchestra have been engaged to furnish music for the party.
 A chairman and assisting committee will be named by John Funam of Syracuse, President of the organization, in the near future.
 A majority of Auburn students hold membership in the Central New York Club.

Noted Chaplain Marks
Silver Sacrodotial Jubilee GALLVESTON, TEX. The three-day celebration of the twenty-fifth sacerdotal anniversary of the Rev.
 Marius Stephen Chataignon, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, ended Thursday with a Mass celebrated by the chaplain, at which the Most Rev. Christopher E. Byrne, Bishop of Galveston, presided.
 Observance of the anniversary was advanced as Father Chataignon was ordained on Christmas Eve and said his first Mass on Christmas Day. A native of France, Father Chataignon spent one year in the French army before coming to the United States to study for the priesthood.
