

K. C. LEADERS TOLD TO HEED PRINCIPLES

State Deputy Stresses Catholicity of Knights At Buffalo Meet

Buffalo—We have the principles, what we need in the practice, was the message given to approximately 75 Knights of Columbus leaders of councils in Western New York by State Deputy Michael F. Walsh of Brooklyn at a regional meeting held in Buffalo last Sunday.

In a three hours session held in the K. C. home on Delaware Avenue, District Trustees and council officers discussed the key-point program of the Supreme Officers and their activities in their local councils.

The Knights of Columbus have but one thing to make them different from any other fraternal organization, and that is their Catholicity, declared State Deputy Walsh.

Reviewing the principles of the order, Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism, the State Deputy emphasized the need for implementation of those principles in every-day activities.

Use of Communion especially as observed in New York City was cited by the State Deputy to induce Knights of Columbus to action in forming a formidable competitor to the Communist philosophy.

Other speakers included the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund J. Britt, Chancellor of the Buffalo Diocese, and Chaplain of Buffalo K. of C. Council and the Rev. William J. Kelly, C.M.I., of Holy Angels Collegiate Institute, Buffalo.

Citing the Holy Father's definition of Catholic Action, Father Kelly in a stirring address called upon the Knights as Catholics to become "Catholic Action men" to the extent that they are living, thinking and studying "every day of the year."

He commended the Knights for their devotion to the Holy Eucharist and their lives as Catholics, and urged them to attain by active Catholic lives.

Monsignor Britt and District Deputy Frank Davis welcomed the visiting Knights to Buffalo.

Rochester Council was represented by District Deputy John A. Doyle, Grand Knight Leo G. Bonaventura, Deputy Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn, Financial Secretary Paul A. Fiedmore, Recorder Thomas E. O'Connor, Typist, Dr. Walter E. O'Sullivan, Chairman, Philip H. Murphy, the Catholic Activities Committee and Assistant Secretary Thomas C. McCarthy.

The Conditional Gift

No better financial "risk" exists in the U. S. A. than the Catholic Church.

For those who want safety and a fair return, the Conditional Gift Plan for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith commends itself as a wise and charitable investment. This plan gives the donor from three to five per cent. annually during his life.

At death the principal is devoted to the greatest single task facing the Church—the conversion of the twelve hundred million pagans who do not know the true God.

Conditional Gifts are a means of repaying the debt which the gift of faith imposes on us.

Church Force in Social Reforms, Charities Told

Special to Catholic Courier and each committee, as well as many of you, have helped us to do everything that we have been able to accomplish.

The Archbishop in a brief address expressed confidence that Elmira would be the cause of charity. He said the Catholic Charities was a tremendous force in the community Charity as exemplified by the Good Samaritan coupled with organized effort and personal interest will result in a bright future for the charity movement in Elmira.

Calling upon all to contribute as generously as possible of money and service, the Archbishop expressed the hope that the meeting would become an annual affair.

Harry Springer played selections on the Mark Twain organ during the dinner.

Principal speaker was Dr. John C. Armstrong of St. Bonaventure College. The scope of the work of Catholic Charities was presented by Miss Mary Fitzgerald, executive director of Elmira Catholic Charities.

Attorney Cornelius O'Dea was toastmaster. Others at the speakers' table were Mayor J. Maxwell Beers, Judge Bertram L. Newman, Justice Ely W. Personius, Oscar J. O'Connell, Attorney Charles J. Finnerty and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Lee, V.P.; the Rev. William J. O'Brien, the Rev. Arthur C. Smith, the Rev. Charles J. Azzi, the Rev. L. J. Szaszpanek, the Rev. J. J. Moriarty, the Rev. Francis Kelly, the Rev. Thomas Toole, all priests of Elmira, and the Rev. Lawrence E. Casey, Vice Chancellor of the diocese from Rochester.

Foreas at Work Doctor Armstrong discussed the forces in operation in a progressive society which constantly requires modifications in the social structure, which effect changes and mold the society of any and all generations. The important forces, he pointed out, were those deep and hidden and which bring about important transformations.

Church Leads Social Reform "Through all the mutations and reforms in society religious forces have exerted an influence in the direction of social welfare. The church exercises a function of great utility for the force it represents in social reform tends to ameliorate the lot of the poor, the sick, the helpless and hopeless portion of humanity."

In thanking those who had aided the work of Elmira Catholic Charities, Miss Fitzgerald said "Catholic Charities during the first 100 months of 1936 had under care 35 families, including approximately 1,588 individuals. An average of 100 home visits to these families each week and half as many office consultations.

Human Factor Important "But to what avail?" The blind end of the year statistics only lead us to the real fundamentals of Catholic social work because we are now dealing with a human balance sheet. The supreme question is not how fast did the wheel turn, but did we help men, women and children to grow in physical, mental and moral stature.

Many organizations have contributed to any success we may have attained in the past. Not least among these is the Community Chest. Catholic Charities realize that as a separated unit, we would find ourselves a different and costly part of our program. Other agencies, public and private or loyal staff, our board of directors.
