Toronto Archdiocese Has Speakers' Bureau

TORONTO (AP)—An extensive program of Catholic Social Action has been initiated here by the Most Rev. J. C. McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto.

The latest step in the project is a Speakers' Bureau composed of 75 prominent members of the dental, legal, medical, educational nursing and social service professions who will be at the service of parish organizations.

Catholic Action Obligation Mexican Catholic Action has an obligation to active children and youth, particularly the directive organisms of Catholic Action.

All Catholics are obligated to work for the salvation of others especially children and youth, and this is true in particular of parents and teachers. They have an obligation to learn and to comply with what their Bishops teach and order.
