

Catholic

Editorial Board: Rev. Fr. ...

Managing Editor: ...

Business Office: ...

Subscription Information: ...

Advertising Rates: ...

Publication Details: ...

Printed at: ...

Current Comment

1937, A Big Year For Cooperatives

By Rev. Edgar Schmiedeler, O.S.B. Director, N.C.W.C. Rural Life Bureau

There is much evidence of a more than ordinary report...

So, too, does the successful Farmers Union State Exchange...

According to a recent news release of the Co-operative League...

The business of 2,200 former co-operative engaged primarily in purchasing amounted to $247,000,000...

Consumers Co-operative Association, North Kansas City Missouri, originally organized to serve rural co-operatives...

Everything points to a big year for co-operatives in 1937. It is most earnestly to be hoped that they will continue to build...

STRANGE BUT TRUE

Catholic Facts But Little Known

By M. J. MURRAY

Mother Margaret Hallahan, foundress of the Dominican Congregation of St. Catherine of Siena, LIVED 30 YEARS AS A DOMESTIC SERVANT before she became a nun. MOTHER MARGARET WAS BORN IN LONDON IN 1803 OF IRISH PARENTS.

Defending The Faith

Questions and Answers By Arnold Lamm

Surely a sane man disapproved the possibility of our being... ANSWER

A few years ago I challenged the skeptics who were present at a discussion to name any Catholic belief which had been refuted by science...

A dead body, says science, does not recover of itself the power of self motion. Agreed and therefore when we discover that a dead body has recovered that power we do not assume that science has let us down...

An apple falling freely from the tree, will hit the ground. Science teaches therefore that the cause, apple falling freely, will be followed by the effect, apple strikes ground...

THE LIBRARY SIGN POST

FOR THE RECORD

The Christian Front, a monthly Catholic magazine of social reconstruction received a letter from Franklin D. Roosevelt recently which is worth reprinting here.

In the matter of religion I have been much concerned with controversies about rather provocative problems, and have finally adopted a position which to many is used as a provocation...

THE CATHOLIC EVIDENCE LIBRARY RECOMMENDS

ORTHODOXY. By Gilbert K. Chesterton. In his autobiography G. K. C. recounts the occasion when he was responsible for this book...

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PRACTICE. By Gerald Ellard, S.J. It is noticeable that Christian social reform is being advanced most successfully by those Catholic groups, especially in Europe...

Diocesan Recordings

HE SAW RED. If you had a son and he had just been ordained and a priest-batter were to walk up to him and call him a vile name...

SIMULTANEOUS with the announcement that the CATHOLIC COURIER was launching a campaign of education against subversive forces in the nation...

THE HOLY FATHER'S intention will be remembered by members of the Holy Name Societies on Sunday, January 10, when they approach the altar rail...

LAY SOCIETIES of the diocese engaging in any manner in combating Communism or other forces opposed to right order...

Self-destruction is ever avoided by those who have faith in the eternal life hereafter.

Why Fight For Schools? 14. Church and Family

- 1. The Church is the great family of Christ and the home of Christian families in the world.
- 2. The Church and the family, together, form one and the same temple of education.
- 3. The Church teaches by her liturgy, ritual and art. She also uses her countless schools, colleges and universities for training the young to lead good Christian lives...
- 4. The school owes its existence to the Church and the family long before it was touched by the State.
- 5. The school is a complement of Church and home.

The CATHOLIC COURIER is presenting under this heading, in 20 short installments, a summary of the Holy Father's Encyclical "Rerum Novarum" in terms of 1930, as the Christian Education of Youth. (Reprinted by permission of The University, London Catholic Newspaper.) All Catholics should study these points in order that they may better understand the Church's stand on Catholic Schools.

Various small articles and snippets on the left side of the page, including mentions of 'Catholic', 'Communism', and 'Church'.