Better Than Last Year This year's Crusade - to be conducted during February which is Catholic Press Month - is expected to eclipse last year's campaign when nearly 10,000 subscriptions were received throughout the diocese.

Right now the Crusade leaders are mapping out plans for the children's participation in this movement. Glorious prizes and prizes are in store for all who go to the front for the Catholic press.

This year's Crusade is the most important mass project ever undertaken by the children of the diocese. The eyes of the entire Catholic press world will be focused on the Crusade inasmuch as the Catholic editors of the United States meet here next May.

A Crusade Rally Call Centuries ago when the Crusaders of old fastened the Red Cross to their breasts and left their homelands to free the Holy Land from the grip of the Saracens, they went forward into the struggle with the powerful battle cry: "God wills it!"

In the 1937 Crusade conducted by the CATHOLIC COURIER, we also must have a battle cry and are depending on some boy or girl to write it. A prize awaits the author of the slogan accepted. Full details are printed in the notice at the bottom of this page.

Complete details of the 1937 Crusade will be announced in next week's COURIER. Watch for them. Meanwhile get yourself with the armor of twentieth-century knight-hood. Get ready to assail the battle lines and go over the top to an even more glorious victory than the one achieved last year.

This year's Crusade will be launched with another great rally! This year's prize list will be richer than ever. This year's campaign will go over the top—with your help!

CATHOLICS IN TURKEY Bishop May Lose $2,000 Property

We believe that very few of our readers realize the difficulty situation in which the Catholic Church is found in Turkey. In Constantinople, now called Istanbul, a law was passed about a year and a half ago forbidding clergy to wear ecclesiastical garb.

SACRED VESSEL It is certainly an honor to provide the Sacred Vessel that holds the consecrated Host.

FOR THE PRIESTHOOD Nobody can estimate the good accomplished by one missionary priest.

Our condition is anything but happy. Some years ago the Melchite Catholics, together with the people of the Separated Church, left Istanbul in great numbers. Today our community of Melchite Catholics numbers only three hundred.
