Business Women Set Supper, Book Review, Feb. 1

The Business Women's Group of the Catholic Women's Club will have a supper meeting at the clubhouse Monday evening, February 1, at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Ada Mears is supper chairman. At 8 P. M., Miss Mary McCarthy will review "The Late George Apley," by John P. Marquand. The book review is open to the public.

The Choral Group of the Club has elected the following officers to serve during the coming year: Chairman, Mrs Vincent L. McDonald, vice-chairman, Mrs. Frank Kaiser, secretary-treasurer, Miss Lena Disparti librarian, Agnes Burns McNaughton

Mrs. Marie Keber Burbank is the Director of the Chorus. Mrs Burbank studied music in New York City for five years, part of which time she was a pupil of Madame Schumann Heink. Following that she came to the Eastman School of Music, where she obtained six consecutive scholarships. At various times she has been guest artist with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. At one time she was a member of Roxy's Gang and toured the United States with them

Miss Hazel MacComber, accompanist for the chorus, is a graduate of Eastman School of Music and head of the Piano Department of Elmira College.

Members of the club are invited to join the Chorus which meets at the clubhouse on Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock

The Board of Directors of the Club will meet on Friday evening February 5, at 8 o'clock

Double Dramatic Bill Listed By Mercy High School Players

Our Lady of Mercy High School Thespians will present two short plays in the Columbus Auditorium Tuesday evening, February 2

The first play, "A Gracious Lady of Rome," has its setting in Rome in the third century

Marion Byrne, Florence Vogt and Peggy Speis carry the leads. Seconary roles are handled by Lucille Ribson and Dorothy Tyrell, while Elizabeth Green, Rita Conley and Lillian Wirey give the support.

The second presentation, "Dust in the Eyes," is a two-act comedy It too, is a period play, with its setting in the colorful Watteau period, the era of Louis XVI. The plot deals with the efforts of two French families to outdo each other by living beyond their means.

From a large cast, Mary Lou Knapp, Jean Bothwick, Betty Snyder and Marie Vetter share the principal roles. Heading the supporting cast are Virginia Wilson, Ann Mackey and Florence Moran. Minor roles are taken by Betty Beach, Mary Kay Murphy, Dolores Schulte, Helen Devendorf, Peggy Burke, Mary Caufield Helen Sullivan and Margaret Carroll

Edward Callan of the Eastman School of Music will direct the school orchestra, which will play before the curtain rises and between the acts

Zealous Child Crusaders of today will become the active laity of tomorrow. Spur them on by your co-operation.
