Keep AHEAD of the JONESES
THERE'S just one way to be "better off" than the other people on your street. . . . In order to keep ahead, you must think and act first. And that can be done by any one who decides to do it, whatever the family income.

Women Will Lend Aid To K. C. Spain Forum

Catholic women's organizations will cooperate in staging the public forum on the true situation in Spain being sponsored by Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus in Columbus auditorium, Sunday evening, February 14, at 8 o'clock.

Speaks in English
The forum will be open to the public. Don Bernillo's address will be in English. He will answer questions following his talk.

Aids Ticket Chairman
Leaders of Catholic women's societies, who are cooperating with Charles A. Tucker, chairman of the ticket committee, follows:

Particularly timely is the general Communion intention for the month of February which unites Catholics of America as they pray for the country, its welfare and that of its leaders.

Welcome indeed was the announcement of a Dramatic Club at Holy Rosary Sodality. The Sodality are waiting for greater things after the first taste of the powers of this group at the recent meeting.

Washington, D. C., is not the only place where inaugurals are taking place. In St. Jerome's Sodality, Mass. Rochester, the following of feasts were indicated recently: Hil- sen Muldoon, Prefect; Jeanne Malone, Vice-prefect; Mary Dolan Secretary and Katherine Cannon Treasurer.

Priest Urges Religion As Crime Check

Tells Radio Audience Inmates Lack Early Moral Training

"Much will be accomplished in the problem of crime, when religion and morality become a living, vitalizing force in the lives of people of this nation," predicted the Rev. William J. Morgan, chaplain of the House and former chaplain at Auburn Prison, in a talk over WEEIC on Monday.

Others listed to talk in the series are Police Chief Copenhagen, District Attorney O'Mara, Judge Gilmartin, Superintendent of Schools Spinning and Dr. A. W. Beaven, President, Rochester-Colgate Divinity School. The two radio stations are contributing time for the talks.

In answer to questions frequently asked of the State, Judge Gilmartin, Superintendent of Schools Spinning and Dr. A. W. Beaven, President, Rochester-Colgate Divinity School. The two radio stations are contributing time for the talks.

They speak of the failure of religion. But as a matter of fact, the number of those sent to prison, who have practiced their religion, is a very insignificant one.

Only 10 per cent of the Catholics in New York State prisons are parochial school graduates. The conclusion which must be drawn from these facts is that religion has played a very little part in the lives of most sent to prison.
