How to Handle A Spendthrift Husband

SALLY MARTIN, New York newspaper columnist, recently advised perplexed young wives:

"Why not suggest that you subtract a sum of money for the bank each week? Whatever remains, you'll have to live on or go to the bank. And as most of us are loath to withdraw our savings, he may learn to stay within a certain limit in his expenditures."

That's sound advice—for individuals, too!

Chapel Furnishings

In some places in the Near East chapels are not in use because they lack furnishings. Here is what a chapel needs most:

- An Altar A Chalice A Ciborium A Missal A Censorium Crucifix and Candelsticks A Set of Altar Linens

You can give all these to a Chapel for $102.00.

NATIVE PRIESTS

It is useless to hope to make any country Catholic or deeply rooted in the Faith unless the priests of that country come from the people. In other words, there must be a native priesthood if the missionaries were well supplied with money, if the missionaries built the finest schools and churches and did not train the young men of the mission lands for the priesthood, they would not be successful. Their work could not be considered permanent, and they would be sadly neglectful of their duty.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Do you like the devotions of the Stations of the Cross? This devotion is richly indulged and makes it easy for us to have sorrow for sin. You can help spread this devotion. You can erect a set of Stations in a mission chapel for Ten Dollars. Make this gift a memorial to your parents.

MASS FOR THE DECEASED

Lent reminds us of the necessity of doing penance and satisfying for sin. When this thought comes, remember your deceased relatives and friends. Ask the missionaries to offer Holy Mass for your deceased.

A NEW CHAPEL

Try to imagine the thrill that comes to a missionary when he receives a donation to build a chapel. It means that a great obstacle has been removed. It means he can really do something permanent. A chapel can be built for Five Hundred Dollars. The donor can select the name. Let us hear from you.

SANCTUARY LAMP

The lamp that burns before the Altar on which the Blessed Sacrament is reserved is called the Sanctuary Lamp. You can give one to a mission chapel for Seven Dollars. It will burn for many years for your intention.

FOR THE LIVING AND THE DECEASED

All our members, the living and the deceased, share in the Fifteen Thousand Masses that are offered for them every year. Mass is also offered every day at the Vatican for the deceased.

THE LONELY MISSIONARY

The lonely missionary hopes that the next mail will bring a letter for him. Too often, we have nothing for him. Will you help? Ask this lonely priest to offer Mass for your intentions.

STRINGLESS GIFTS

We appreciate even the smallest Stringless Gift. When you send something and say it is Stringless, we use it where it is most needed. It is spent on taking care of emergencies. It is used for repairs, school books, coal, etc. Send us a Stringless Gift.

ST. JOSEPH

St. Joseph was born in the Near East. He spent all his life there. Would you give a Statue of St. Joseph to a Near East school or chapel? A large Statue can be purchased for Fifteen Dollars.

MAKE A SACRIFICE

During Lent make a sacrifice for the missionaries. Deny yourself some legitimate pleasure and send what you can to the missionary priests. They can do a great deal with a dollar.

Send all communications to Catholic Near East Welfare Association 480 Lexington Avenue at 48th Street New York, N. Y.

Along The Pathway

No, you won't have to pinch yourself, thinking that you might be dreaming. It is an actual fact that this column will appear weekly in the Junior Supplement of the Catholic Courier.

Boys, this is your column. A lot will depend on you for its success. Mail some news of interest about your neighborhood, your school, your clubs, etc.

Reading is the best aid in education. Get the habit of reading at least one good book a month. A book for you to read this month is The Blessed Friend of Youth by Rev. Neil Boyton, S.J. This book contains a very interesting and exciting biography of St. John Bosco.

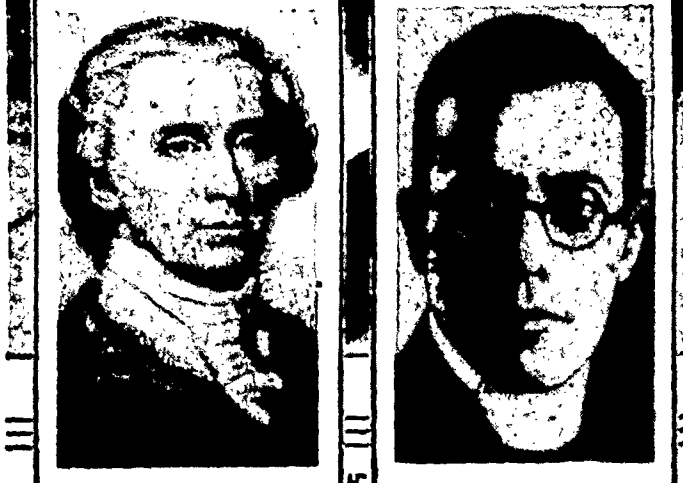

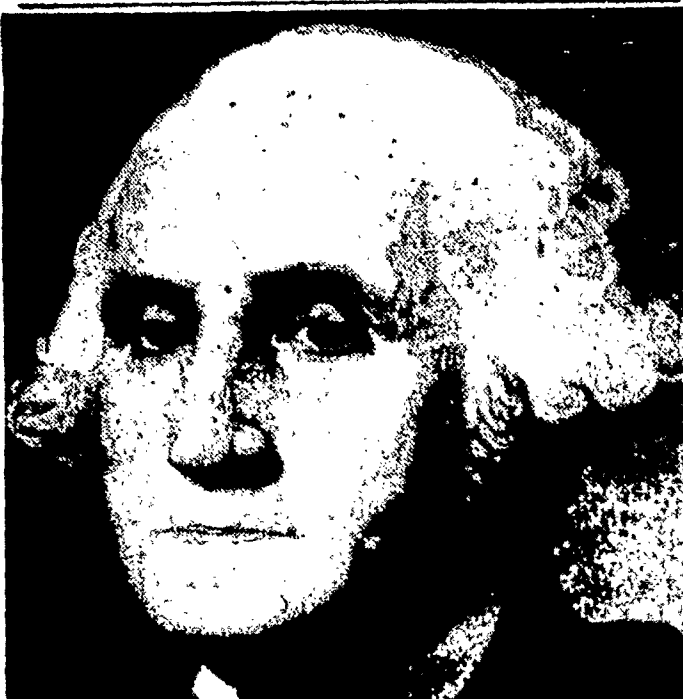

Kindly mail all news, or items or any information you desire to appear in this column to Jimmy Along The Pathway, No. 60 Chestnut Street Rochester, N. Y.

PUPILS ENTERTAIN AT ST. MICHAEL'S

An entertainment was given by the pupils of St. Michael's School on the evenings of February seventh and eighth.

The play in my opinion was one of the best we have ever presented. A classical dramatization of the spirit of the Angels, describing that beautiful season called by the pious Academics, the "Summer of All Saints," was given by the eighth grade girls.

ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The anniversary of the birth of our first President, George Washington, recalls the Catholic patriots who fought with him in the War for Independence and in the founding of the Republic.

The Brown King

(Continued from last week) Michael and some other boys were lying under a palm tree while all told them the story of the visit of the Three Wise Kings who were seeking the Christ-Child.

Gilmore was an American musician who is known as the "Father of Military Bands." He was the first to raise the brass band to dignified musical status, making it an integral part of the concert program and enabling it to perform effectively and beautifully.

Is the anniversary of President Roosevelt's first inauguration in 1933. This date will go down in history as mighty important. But so will March 4, 1937 as far as the thousands of students in the Second Annual Press Crusade are concerned!
