By GEMTRUDE D. MADIGAN
Coincident with the Feast of St. Joseph, it is most fitting that we consider remedies and preventative for the disintegration of Catholic family life...

In an article appearing in the March issue of The Catholic Family Monthly, the Rev. Dr. Edgar Schmiedeler, O.S.B., comments: "What a different picture would now meet the eye if the Association had really prospered..."

Last November, the Most Rev. Henry Althoff, Bishop of Detroit, addressed the following communication to every pastor in the Diocese: "I hereby direct that, in accordance with the instructions received from the Holy See..."

In calling attention to Bishop Althoff's instruction, Dr. Schmiedeler says: "Beyond all question there is need for a religious renewal of our family life. Religion's effective influence has been practically lost to some Catholic families..."

Catholic Courier FACTS for READERS

DURING the nearly five years that the CATHOLIC COURIER has been in process of reorganization and expansion, those responsible for its operation have noted many points concerning its purposes and methods which its readers might well understand more fully or more clearly...

WE ARE certain that a closer mutual understanding will prove to be a mutual benefit. After all, the CATHOLIC COURIER must have the genuine interest and attention of its readers if it is fully to perform its role as an authoritative medium of Catholic news and opinion...
