NEWARK KNIGHTS HIT COMMUNISM

NEWARK Following out directions of the Supreme Council Knights of Columbus, in carrying on a Crusade against Communism, Newark Council will reach its high point in the campaign with a meeting on Thursday, May 4.

Well attended meetings have marked the progress of the Council here. Addresses have been heard on the importance of combating Communism and atheism and discussion of practical methods has taken place.

The Council launched a map power campaign at the March 23 meeting. Past Grand Knight, Edward Vickers, chairman of the membership campaign, told the members "Why Every Good Catholic Man Should Be a Knight of Columbus."

The Rev. James C. Lano, assistant pastor of St. Michael's Church here, advised the Knights on March 24 on the subject of Communism. The Rev. Lano, who spoke on March 10 on "The Knights of Columbus," advised the Knights on March 24 on the subject of Communism. The Rev. Society for the Propagation of the Faith
REV. LEO C. MOONEY, Director

"GOING THEREFORE, TEACH YE ALL NATIONS"

The story has been lately told in England that some time ago a priest visited an important Catholic institution with the hope of interesting them in the missions and the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

You know Father we have so many things to do we really have no time for idle talk.

Quantity enough, there are many things which this designates what really the Church's sole reason for existence, the preaching of the truth to all nations. It is up to us who know better to enlighten these people.

YOU'RE WRONG!

It is not long ago a young man came to read mission appeals because she would not do anything about them and that made her feel so wretched she was all wrong on two counts. First of all, I was the only one she had to it that she would not do anything about them and that made her feel so wretched she was all wrong on two counts.

LOU OF THE SEE

Always I remember the day I was born in 1838 for Southern Italy, 49 native migrants. Poles, Whites, Belgians, French, etc. I should have been as happy with bread and butter and I thought of the last missioner I had talked to who had specified that even the stammering, who represented a world of work instead of a bus ride or the giving up of a cigar meant so much to missionary progress when many engaged in such sacrifices.

In the second place she should have read the appeals because she might at least be impelled to work for the missions in the particular difficulties cited, she is really a devout person who seems to counter her own difficulties in the hands of the Little Flower. In the third place she should have read the appeals because she might at least be impelled to work for the missions in the particular difficulties cited, she is really a devout person who seems to counter her own difficulties in the hands of the Little Flower.

Defeats SS. Peter and Paul Team in Play-off, 23-13; Wins Trophy

By Staff Correspondent

AUBURN Victory of the St. Aloysius five in the third and deciding game in the play-offs over the St. Peter and Paul's 5topolers in the St. Aloysius gymnasium, Monday night, 23-13, basketball championship to the Van Anden Street parish.

The Catholic Basketball League trophy becomes the permanent possession of the St. Aloysius team as the result of winning the championship having won two straight legs on the trophy last year and the year before.

More than 200 spectators crowded themselves into the gymnasium to witness the team in battle Tuesday night.

In the first game St. Aloysius had a slight lead of 7 to 0. The half was closely contested with each team working hard to get the lead.

The St. Aloysius quintet led loose its power in the second half taking chances on long staves that proved successful. With a slight edge in the height, the victors won on the tip-offs from center and kept possession of the ball most of the time in this period.

Loyal followers of the St. Aloysius five with the reason of Rev. John D. Crowley holding aloft the trophy marched about the hall floor following the victory.
