Last week? So do we. Every now and then in the midst of one we come upon something which brings us right back to the habit of helping people save money.

For instance, from Mary Doyle's Life We Like That.

Pray with perseverance as well as faith. God often defers to grant our petitions because He rejoices in the homage which we render Him by them.

CATHOLIC WILLS SOLVE MISSION PROBLEMS

The instinct is strong to keep what you have. Yet when death summons we must go to the grave, "clutching in our dead hands only that which we have given away. If you feel you cannot share your earthly possessions now with God, perhaps you will be mindful of Him and His missions when drawing up your last will. You can be sure that what you leave to carry on Mission work will merit a blessing on your soul, and cause your name to be held in benediction long after your death. Think then of our mission when making or changing your last will. Kindly use this formula:

WAYLAND Five pupils of St. Joseph's School here were awarded prizes by the Rotary Club for essays written by the pupils on health topics at the request of Dr. A. E. Richmond of the Wayland Board of Health.

The essay by Leona Vogt, eighth grade, on "Tuberculosis," was judged the best in the school. Other winners were: Donald Hessner, eighth grade, Helen Vochem, eighth grade, Vincent Prugel, Margaret Bonerlein, seventh grade, John Reynolds, Beryl Gallagher, sixth grade, Charles O'Neil, Joan Vogt, fifth grade.

The first prize winning essay is as follows:

TUBERCULOSIS

The subject that we are about to discuss is that of tuberculosis. Tuberculosis is a germ which is found in the air. Where did it come from? A scientist discovered the remains of a person, who was dead for thousands of years, and found he had a hunchback, which was caused by tuberculosis. Also several of the mummies found in tombs in Egypt show signs of the disease. Tuberculosis is probably as old as man.

Some four hundred years before Christ, a Greek doctor named the disease phthisis, which means "wasting." Later they found little lumps, which they called tubercles. Today the disease is called tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis germs can be caught by the tiny droplets sprayed out during coughing and sneezing. They live hours in moist sputum and may resist drying and freezing. These germs grow rapidly in the body and one variety called bovine attacks cattle but will also grow in the human body. Germs may be left on a spoon, drinking cups, whistles, pipes, pencils, and the next person who puts these articles in his mouth gives the germs a chance to get into his own body. Germs may also be caught by drinking the milk unpasteurized from a tubercular cow.

Today the doctor uses the scientific method to discover the disease, such as the penetrating eye of the X-ray. The specialist depends more on the X-ray than on his examination of the patient. The many hospitals and sapatoriums have also helped. In the hospitals they plan to cure the patient by a balanced diet, fresh air, sunshine and rest. The diet should include milk, fruit, meat, eggs and vegetables. Sanatoriums help the people to win the battle by curing the germ. They also give supervision, good cheer and prevent worrying as much as possible. In the sanatoriums the people usually improve quickly after a few weeks of rest in bed. To win, the patient must keep the enemy bottled up and starve him out. He must stick faithfully to the cure long after he feels well.

I think that if every one would live up to these rules and try to prevent tuberculosis, he would do his part for the Community. Good food, fresh air, deep breathing, exercise and plenty of rest are good preventives against tuberculosis. Wayland's high altitude makes it a healthful place to live.

Again, Wayland is fortunate in having two skillful doctors and its own hospital. Indeed, Wayland is a healthful place to live.

SCOUTING with JIMMY

Crusader Troop 200 and Cub Pack 200 celebrated its fifth anniversary in St. Boniface's Church hall, Tuesday of last week with a Father and Sons banquet. A presentation of the Eagle Badge was made to Norman Metzger, an assistant scoutmaster by Milton V. Schaefer, counsellor and Baloer of the Silver Beaver Award and Scoutmaster's Key. Luther M. Dey received a bronze Eagle Palm.

W. Arthur McKinney, Scout executive of the Rochester Council, gave a short talk and Charles A. Tucker, Chancellor of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus and an ardent booster for Catholic boy organizations was the principal speaker of the evening.

Kasi Dray led the singing of cowboy songs. Paul Vollmer and several cowboys gave an exhibition of rope spinning and Joe Kalb gave an exhibition of speed individual knot tying, everything in the Western roundup style.

Gerald Williamson, local Scout commissioner presented the Life Scout badge to John Schnacky and other awards were made as follows: Star Scout badges, Richard Corcoran, Joseph Tierney, Robert Kock, Theodore McDonald and Paul Vollmer; first class Scout badges, Robert Williams, Henry Lattinville, and Donald Schnacky; second class Scout badges, Gerald Hagenbach, Robert Blum, Marco Paterno, Raymond Phillips, Jack Wilson, Victor DeStephno, John Fouquet, Thomas Healy, Harold Pratt, Paul McCyrr and Robert Schnacky.

Merit badges were awarded as follows: Richard Andreo, metalcraft, woodcarving; Richard Corcoran, firemanship, athletics, electricity, metal work, personal health, physical development, plumbing, reptile study; Luther Dey, metal work, Clarence Goetz, scholarship, J. Richard Kiss, plumbing, cycling; Robert Koch, firemanship, reading, reptile study, scholarship; Henry Lattinville, firemanship.

Ted McDonald, athletics, civics, electricity, firemanship, personal health, physical development, plumbing, swimming; Norman J. Meteyer, cooking, pathfinding, printing, safety, woodcarving; Edward F. Miller, plumbing; John Schnacky, athletics, metal work, weather; Joe Tierney, athletics, civics, cooking, electricity, firemanship, personal health, physical development, plumbing, swimming; Eugene Vogt, plumbing; Paul Vollmer, cooking, electricity, plumbing.

Last week-end 35 scouts from Troops 180 of Holy Redeemer's Church and 192 of Mount Carmel Church went on an overnight camping trip at Ellison Park under the capable supervision of Philip J. Russo, scoutmaster, of both troops.

Phil was assisted by Robert Wells, Albert Fata, Russell Russo, Fred Englert, James Petrini, Murray Zeiler and Rosario Mule. The program included hiking, games, songs and outdoor work in kneeling, pace, fire building, cooking, knife and ax and map making.

The Senior Scout Conference which will open this Saturday at 9:30 a. m. in the Chamber of Commerce will attract hundreds of scouts 15 years of age or older.

NATIONAL HEADS REVIEW ST. JOHN KNIGHTS IN DRILL

Before the supreme leaders of both organizations and Buffalo staff officers, military units of the Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliaries passed in review and executed military formations at the annual inspection and dress parade, Friday night of last week at Edgerton Park, before a large crowd of applauding spectators.

In the reviewing stand were Supreme President, Frank H. Blai K.H.S., of the Knights and Supreme President, Mrs. Teresa Gantzer of the Ladies Auxiliary, both of Rochester.

Commanded by Colonel Frederick J. Wegman, the ten commanderies of the Knights in full dress uniform and the drill units of Holy Family Auxiliary drill team making its first appearance here and the District Auxiliary Drill Team paraded through the large drill hall to the music of the Veterans of Foreign Wars military band.

Inspection of the Knights was conducted by Inspector Edmund Braun and Assistant Inspector Edward J. Bach in a building adjoining the drill hall.

With the national leaders in the reviewing stand were: The Rev. Joseph H. Gefell, Regimental Chaplain, the Rev. Frederick Hartmann, CSSR, rector of St. Joseph's Church, and Captain Cyril Kress of Troop F, 101st Cavalry, Buffalo staff officers, about 20 in number, headed by Colonel Frank J. Kreppel and the Rev. Henry B. Lautenbach, chaplain and pastor of St. Louis Church, Buffalo.

Difficult formations were demonstrated in exhibition drills by St. Boniface Commandery, the District Auxiliary drill company and the Holy Family Auxiliary unit. A regimental drill was conducted in command of Colonel Wegman.

The women's competition in their colorful uniforms performed with a military precision that drew for them commendations from General Bird.

The review and inspection was the first in command of Colonel Wegman. Senior Major Jose n Wandelgass and Regimental Adjutant Emil J. Eckert, recently promoted, took part for the first time at their new posts.

from all parts of Western New York.

John Smith, Scout executive of the Red Jacket Council, is the chairman and Forrest White, assistant scout executive of the Rochester Council, is the director.

Subjects of interest offered the Scouts at this conference are Indian lore, nature, craft, hobbies, radio and others that appeal to Scouts of that age.

Ideas for a good program for Explorer Scouts and Sea Scouts will also be given.
