Mission Sunday of the Sick

PENTECOST SUNDAY, MAY 16

On this day the Holy Father invites all Christians throughout the world, who are afflicted with sickness and physical suffering, to offer their prayers and sacrifices for one intention: the world-wide missions of the Catholic Church, where hundreds of millions in paganism still suffer in body and soul.

Will you tell others of this and enlist all the sick whom you know, asking them to consecrate the day for this intention with the following prayer:

"O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer Thee all my prayers, works, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Thy Sacred Heart in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world for the conversion of souls.

Amen

Communism Scored In Fenerty Talk

Auburn Holy Name Men Hear Stirring Address At Banquet

(Catholic Centre Service)

AUBURN Declaring there is slight variation between Communism as practiced in Russia and that which the Spanish people are now fighting in the Iberian peninsula, Clare Gerald Fenerty of Philadelphia, Pa., former congressman and former district attorney, told 300 men who gathered in the evening on Monday, May 10th, for the 50th anniversary banquet, for the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church at Osborne Hotel "for America and Americans there can be but one answer."

He struck a high note in his talk stating Communism, when he said, morality is not to be bartered for bestiality nor liberty exchanged for thraldom. Americanism is still a holier creed than Moscowism, the 10 commandments do not need to be rewritten by the Communists as much as they need to be reread by them."

Moses vs. Stalin

Moses is a better prophet than Stalin. And for time and eternity the dead and risen Christ, the lover of the poor the prince of peace, is infinitely more powerful than the shrunken mummy of Lenin, garbed in the trappings of war lying coldly in his marble mausoleum, before the red brick wall of Kremlin.

"The forces of pagan darkness of red reversalism, of Communist animalism are arrayed against freedom against America, against the Christian civilization of the western world. It is a fight to save America from the degradation of Russia, a degradation that reduces man to the level of the soulless animal, a communized high-powered beast," he said.

Fr. Gaffney Speaks

"It is the old warfare between powers of light and powers of darkness, the struggle of American constitutional freedom against the soviet czars in their mad endeavor to crucify Christian civilization."

Another guest speaker was Rev. Paul J. Gaffney, chaplain of state school in Industry, a former spiritual adviser to the Holy Name Society while he was connected with the Holy Family Church. Other speakers were Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway, V.G., pastor of the Holy Family Church; Rev. Richard Fay of Jamaica, L. I., a Passionist father who conducted a three-day retreat in the church in observance of the golden jubilee of the society; and John McManus. Rev. John S. Randall, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church, gave the invocation. Deputy Attorney-General Edward T. Boyle acted as toastmaster.

HONOR 15 CHARTER MEMBERS AT K.C. JUBILEE PROGRAM

SENECA FALLS Fifteen charter members were honored Sunday night, May 9, at the 40th anniversary celebration of Seneca Falls Council, 422, Knights of Columbus, in the clubrooms.

The program, in charge of Stephen J. Byrne, lecturer, opened with a testimonial to the charter members after which Francis J. Clary, Rochester attorney, and a son of the first grand knight of the local council, responded for the younger members.

Charter members who were honor guests included Thomas J. Clary, the first grand knight; John H. O'Brien, Michael E. Keegan, John Keegan, Patrick J. Ryan, James Fay, Thomas Moonan, James G. McKeon, Thomas Coffey, William P. McCaul, George Casey, Patrick S. Clare, Patrick Ryan and Frank A. Cooke, all of Seneca Falls and Patrick Savage of Ovid.

The Rev. B. L. Quirk, pastor, and the Rev. Charles I. Sullivan, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church gave talks on "What the Knights of Columbus Are doing Today."

The Seneca Falls Council was founded May 9, 1897 by the Rochester Council with Judge Delaney of New York as the instituting officer.

The local council has a present membership of 180 and has received recognition from the national order on several occasions.

SURPRISES MARK LEAGUE OPENING

Opening games in the Parochial Indoor League produced some surprises, with several newcomers turning in double victories.

In the Northern division St. Andrew's, last year's champions, got off to a good start, beating St. Ambrose 7-6, and Holy Cross 19-0.

Other results were: Holy Apostles 18, Holy Rosary 14; Holy Rosary 7, Our Lady of Perpetual Help 4; Holy Redeemer 22, Holy Apostles 10; St. Margaret-Mary 12, Holy Redeemer 8. Holy Cross 11, St. Charles 9; St. Stanislaus 10, Our Lady of Perpetual Help 5.

In the Southern division Old St. Mary's surprised, beating St. Monicas 12-10, and Good Counsel 20-18; Cathedral won over Good Counsel 19-7, and St. Monicas 3-1-9; St. Boniface defeated St. Peter-Paul 27-6; St. John's beat St. Boniface 17-5; Corpus Christi defeated Blessed Sacrament 20-10, and St. Mary's Boys' Home turned back St. Peter-Paul 12-6.

All teams play two games this week and a general shake up in team standings is expected by the end of the week.

CATHOLIC SCOUTING with JIMMY

All thoughts are turning to Camp Pioneer and the Rochester Council is planning a rigorous program that will give all campers an experience only Scouts at camp can get.

Scouts with real American blood and a zest for adventure will make every endeavor to go. It is at Pioneer, where the Scouts mingle with those of their own age under skilled supervision. It is at Pioneer where excellent balance is maintained between organized play relaxation Scouting activities and specific duties. It is at Pioneer where the Scouts learn to swim, paddle a canoe, know nature appreciate the out of doors, follow a trail, compete with their companions and become an experienced camper.

At Pioneer, the Scout learns self-dependence and discovers that success and happiness are largely the results of his own efforts. It is at Pioneer where Scouting is a continual process that concerns itself with the social, physical, spiritual, emotional and full development of the Scouts.

Get on the band wagon now and plan at least a weeks stay at Pioneer. It is the only all around camp for Scouts that is conducted by the Rochester Council. Details of the Camp will be found weekly in the CATHOLIC COURIER until the opening season.

Is there a bugler in the crowd??? A contest for the official Camp Pioneer bugler for 1937 will be conducted at 7 p. m., Wednesday, June 2 at Tayhouse, back of School No. 1, on Hillside Ave.

Contestants will be required to blow all bugle calls, the winner to be given the exalted position.

Applications for the contest may be made at Scout office with Forrest White, assistant scout executive and camp director.

Scouts wishing to participate in the coming Jamboree to be held in Washington, D. C., June 27 to July 9, must file their applications with the Council office, 212 Cutler Building, no later than Saturday, May 15. Milton V. Schaeffer, scoutmaster of the Crusader Troop 200 from St. Boniface Church; and one of the most distinguished leaders of the Rochester Council, is one of the chosen few, selected to lead the Rochester delegation of Scouts to the National Jamboree.

A survey of Scouts attending Parochial schools of the larger parishes in Rochester will be made this month and the report will be put in this column as soon as completed. According to last year's statistics from 15 of the larger schools numbering 2,743 boys of scout age, 303 boys were Scouts and of that number 200 were in Catholic Troops. Incidentally, of the schools visited sixty six Troops were sponsored by the parishes. What has this year's report in store for our interested people?

Recognition should be given to Peter Du Pre, a scout from Troop 90 of the Columbus Youth Association and a pupil from Good Counsel School for the fine poem of "My Mother" which he contributed to last week's issue of the CATHOLIC COURIER. The poem truly shows a real sentiment and a high regard which Pete has for his mother.
