JUNE and JOBS

By EILEEN LEARY

The Graduating Classes of 1937 bear the color of "Wallie's" latest fashion—white, green, and gold—the silk for schools, high school and college youth exits silver with the juvenile topic of "Happily—they're getting a job."

Frost-David Help

The Press could make its pen mightier than the sword in defense of American principles, if it concerned itself with youth. Not youth alone, of course, but Christian youth, young Communists, not youth as business world, or as political party, or for a "cause." Perhaps young people were born to dream. It is to 1937, our school boys, we must turn now, to find directions and ambitions for the last few years of their school days.

It is the graduates of last year who were looking for work. Eileen Leary called the girls of the forgotten man. What will these mean to graduates from schools come in June, 1937?

Graduation day, youth is the same story, "Go forth to meet the world." If you're interested in the results of the recent graduation at Cornell, read the news stories of those who had the courage to set their careers aside and go to war.

There are many more. There's a lot of talk about the "Great Depression" and there's a lot of talk about the "Great Recovery." There is still more talk about the "Great Recovery" that will bring us back to the days of middle age, Republicans and Democrats, and the like. The "Great Recovery" will come. The "Great Recovery" will not come.

The "Great Recovery" will be the "Great Recovery" of the young. They will be the ones who will bring about the "Great Recovery" of the young.

The "Great Recovery" will be the "Great Recovery" of the young. They will be the ones who will bring about the "Great Recovery" of the young.

CAST TO PRESENT THREE ACT FARCE

The three-act farce "Here Comes Charlie" by Jay Tolson will be presented by the Holy Redeemer Drama Club in the parish hall, Clifford Ave., near Hudson, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 28 and 29, at 8 o'clock. A matinee will be held for school children on Sunday, May 27.

The cast comprises Evelyn Palmer, Evelyn Walker, Marlene Miller, Adeline Gray, Victor Isaac, Joseph Phoenix, Carl Engert, Anne Diamond, James Palot and Gene Burbick.

Directing the production is Fred Engert.

Send for the list of prices or catalogues for the "Cause" of Christ. Youth are only asking for their "daily bread." Is there any greater headline or headlines for Catholic Masses in St. Ann's and St. Ignatius Loyola Churches.

Each parish has a substantial quota to meet along with other parishes in the Rochester diocese, and in the service of HEART TALK WITH JESUS or HEART TALK WITH MARY.

It is hoped the charity amount will be subscribed by next Sunday.

FIRST COMMUNION FOR HORNELL CLASS

HORNBELL — A class of 21 boys and girls will receive First Holy Communion at St. Ignatius Loyola Church next Sunday. It was announced at 10:15, Massasa Sunday. It will be the second class to receive the Sacrament for the first time in the new edifice.

The Her Francis Heater said that the confirmation will be conducted in the 250th Anniversary.

The children will assemble at the parochial residence and march to the Church. At the conclusion of the service they will wend their way to the parochial residence.

Contest Marks Convert's Silver Jubilee as Catholic

To stimulate Catholic youth to appreciate more fully the great gift of the Faith, and all that their religion means to them, Miss Rose Marie Levy, a convert to the Catholic Church from Judaism, will, on her 25th anniversary as a convert, celebrate her August 15, in a unique manner.

This contest closes June 1, 1937.

GENESEE COUNTRY...

The RESIDENTS of this famous and beautiful region unite in extending felicitations to the leaders of the Catholic Press attending their national convention in Rochester. And as the Genesee River, stemming from a small and distant source, gathers might and majesty as it moves onward, so may the Catholic Press Association and the enterprises which it fosters grow in strength and influence down through the years!
