HORNELL... a progressive city salutes the progress of the Catholic Press

EVERY COMMUNITY may well take pride in two factors which affect its civic well-being: its own status as a community, and the general progressiveness of the area of which it is a part.

As a part of the Rochester Diocese, this city shares in the widespread feeling of goodwill engendered by the growth in prestige and influence of the CATHOLIC COURIER, the newspaper which so well serves the Catholic and public welfare of the entire diocesan area.
