It should not take the sage new the swiftness to see that both government and religion are at this very moment, the objects of subtle and destructive encroachments by those subversive forces whose tri-fold existence has already become a definite tangible menace to every citizen in the world.
From statements of Stalin and Earl Browder, Communist leader in the United States, Mr. Hughes noted that destruction of all religion is the aim of the Communist program in Communism.

HOLD FINAL RITES FOR FRANK LA FAYE
Funeral services for Frank Joseph LaFaye, 56, Moravia, N. Y., died suddenly May 16, were held May 19 in St. Patrick's Church.
The Rev. James Tischer, pastor was celebrant of the solemn requiem Mass. Assistants were the Rev. John J. McLaughlin, Holy Rosary Church, Syracuse and the Rev. Alfred Goulet of Mt. Carmel Church, Utica.

Hold Mrs. Meek's Rites at St. Thomas
Funeral services for Mrs. Rosa Theresa Meek, wife of J. Ernest Meek, widely known photographer, were held Sunday May 16, 1937, at St. Paul Boulevard and at St. Thomas Church.

It was apparent to an interested observer that Father LaFaye had made an impression on each of his listeners to the point that the opinions of the students in regard to Catholicism has undergone a change and effect will be noticed in the future at Wells.
Father Cleary was requested to give a second lecture in the early fall.

Don't forget this good advice!
WHERE YOUR health, and that of your family, is concerned, depend on the knowledge and skill of your family physician. Follow his instructions carefully, not forgetting to take his prescriptions to your parish druggist for that careful service which he is certain to render. For your health's sake Depend on Your Parish Druggist
