Asking Again

Last week we appealed to our readers in a special way for help to build a mission school. We asked Five Dollars from each reader. The response was not large. Actually we received forty dollars. We need at least Five Hundred. This should not be impossible. So we ask again. Send us Five Dollars to build the school.

MISSIONARY BISHOP IS ILL

Extreme Poverty Told By Delegate

Iraq is the new name for Mesopotamia. It is that country east of Syria and south of Turkey. One of the Diocese of Iraq is Amadia, and Bishop Francis David is the Chaldean Bishop of Amadia. We have this letter from the Apostolic Delegate.

"For twenty-six years, Bishop Francis David has labored for the Faith in this section of the Near East. He is no longer young. He is now sixty-six years old, and for the past three months has been in the hospital. The Doctor reports that his heart is in a very weakened condition, and that he needs some rest after all the hard work he has performed in recent years for his missions. At present he is staying with another Bishop at Mosul until he gains sufficient strength to make the long journey back to his Diocese.

"I must add that His Excellency is in a very difficult financial position. When he became sick, he had about one hundred dollars but this is all gone, after the expenses for the Doctor, the hospital, etc. When I visited him he had just three francs, about fifteen cents. I gave him thirty-five dollars, and I am sure that this little gift did him as much good as a lot of medicine. It is hard for a Bishop after all these years to have to beg for himself. Personally, I never care to write to you about the personal conditions of the missionaries, but I really think that something ought to be done for this Bishop."

This is a very pitiful case. It gives us an idea of the extreme poverty of the missionaries in the Near East. If the head of the Diocese, a Bishop, is in this condition what must be the condition of the other priests? Perhaps our readers will decide to send us five dollars to take care of this Bishop that he may regain his health. He is badly needed, and his death would be a great blow to his Diocese. So we ask you not to put down this paper without making up your minds to send something for this great missionary.

THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

July first is the Feast of the Precious Blood of Our Lord. It is terrible to think that so many of His creatures are outside His Church. Our Divine Saviour shed His Blood on Calvary. There He made the great sacrifice. Every day He is offered again on the Altar in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Wherever a Catholic priest celebrates Holy Mass, there we have the mystical renewal of Calvary.

Would you give to a Mission Chapel a fitting Altar for the Holy Sacrifice? Fifty Dollars will erect one in the Near East. Your gift will surround the Holy Sacrifice with dignity. Make it a memorial to your parents.

SUMMER AND WINTER

At this time of the year, we always notice a falling off in the number of offerings we receive. It seems as though the summer makes people forget. The missionary must stay at his post. He must keep going summer and winter. Send an offering for him and make it "Stringless."

CANDLES FOR THE YEAR

You can give all the Candles used in a mission chapel for a whole year. These will burn for your intentions. Eight dollars will buy a year's supply for a mission pastor. He would appreciate this gift.

IN YOUR WILL

When you make your Will do not forget Almighty God. You received everything from Him. If you put into your Will the name of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, you will help the missions. You will help make it possible for the missionaries to extend God's Kingdom on earth.

TALK ABOUT US

The best friends we have are those who talk about us to their friends. They make new friends for us. This is the way our Association grows. So we ask you to tell your friends about us.

PAMPHLET ANSWERS QUESTIONS

We will be happy to mail you a copy of our pamphlet on Gregorian Masses if you write us. This pamphlet gives the official answers to a number of questions submitted to the Sacred Congregation in Rome. It also explains the old custom of offering a Mass every day for thirty days for one who is deceased. Write for a copy. It is free.

SPIRITUAL PRIVILEGES

All our members, the living and the deceased, share in Fifteen Thousand Masses every year. A special Mass is offered every day at the Vatican for deceased members.

A TABERNACLE

If you supply a Tabernacle for a mission chapel, the missionary can reserve the Blessed Sacrament. A Tabernacle can be secured in the Near East for ten dollars.

USED AT MASS

Would you give these to one Chapel?

A Chalice. A Missal.
A Ciborium. A Set of Vestments.

They can all be purchased in the Near East for Fifty Dollars. They will be used at Mass every day.

ONE DOLLAR

One dollar a year is all we ever ask from our members. There are no special appeals.

69 Receive Diplomas of DeSalesHigh

Archbishop Hickey Addresses Class at Geneva Church Rites

GENEVA Wearing the traditional caps and gowns, 69 graduates were presented diplomas on Sunday morning in the 22nd annual commencement of De Sales High School at St. Francis De Sales Church.

The Most Rev. Archbishop Thomas F. Hickey delivered the commencement address.

Solemn High Mass opening the ceremony was celebrated by the Rev. John J. Healy, assisted by the Rev. William J. O'Brien, deacon, and the Rev. Philip McGhan, subdeacon.

Dean Speaks

Members of the graduating class were congratulated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Walter J. Lee, V.F., pastor of St. Francis de Sales, who paid tribute to the Rev. Edward K. Ball, principal of De Sales High School.

Graduates were presented and special awards were announced by Father Ball.

Archbishop Hickey in his address to the graduates emphasized that no matter what their stations in life, "God will require your best."

"There will be an examination for every one of you," the Archbishop said. "That examination will be in perfect justice, and you will be judged on how you have done your 'home work' during life."

Awards Announced

Highest averages were announced as follows: Rita Frances Rickey, 97.6; John Cavanaugh McCafferty, 95; Edward Kurkee Breuer, 92.66; Philip Benedict Iacopis, 92.06; Eileen Lois Cook 92. Highest average in commercial work was won by Kathryn Adelaide Gilbert.

Miss Gilbert won the prize donated by the Geneva Club. Miss Rita Rickey was awarded a scholarship at the College of Good Counsel, White Plains, N. Y. The Science scholarship was won by John M. Cafferty with Edward Breuer, alternate. The Bausch and Lomb science prize went to Mr. McCafferty.

St. Cecilia's School Awards 18 Diplomas

ELMIRA In commencement exercises held in St. Cecilia's Church here, Sunday, 18 graduates of St. Cecilia's School received diplomas from their pastor, the Rev. Arthur Smith.

Father Smith addressed the graduates on "Building for Eternity."

John Fogarty had the highest average of 97 4-7 per cent. Special awards were won as follows: Sunday school and Mass attendance, William Young; church assistance, Veronica McKlevis; general excellence, Jean Driscoll; application, Margaret Dickinson and Benjamin Cesare; application in choir, Dorothy Cox and John Orlowsky; perfect school attendance, Robert Cox.

ROBERT M. BESTOR

ORGANIST LEAVES FOR BROOKLIN POST

Robert M. Bestor who started his musical career as a choir boy at Blessed Sacrament Church, has been appointed organist and choirmaster of Holy Family Church, Brooklyn.

For the past two years Mr. Bestor has been tone colorist at St. Martin of Tours, Brooklyn, and completed a two years course at the Pius X School of Liturgical Music, New York.

In 1934 he was organist at Carmelite Monastery and prior to that was organist and choirmaster at Our Lady of Lourdes Church here.

ALL-NIGHT VIGIL SET BY ADORATION SOCIETY

Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society will hold its monthly all-night vigil before the Blessed Sacrament, exposed, starting Saturday evening, June 26, at 10 o'clock, in Cathedral Lady Chapel, and continuing until Sunday morning at 4 o'clock.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, spiritual director, will receive new members into the Society at 9:30 o'clock.

All Catholic men and boys over sixteen years of age are invited to become members. There are no dues and no obligations other than that of being present at the hour appointed. Membership in the society is richly indulgenced.

Men intending to join should report to William G. Wynn, secretary, at 9:15 o'clock Saturday evening.

Dad: "My son, what is this big item in your expense account?"

Son: "Oh, that's my hotel bill."

Dad: "Well, don't buy any more hotels."

Cathedral Increases Lead In Catholic League Race

Cathedral chalked up its fifth straight Catholic League victory this week with an easy 11-3 decision over St. Thomas. Holy Rosary handed Immaculate Conception its fourth straight defeat by the same score.

OLPH and St. Salome's battled eight innings to a 4-4 deadlock. E. Bleier hit a homer with two on for OLPH. Both Schoenberger and Gutberlet pitched airtight ball in the late innings.

President John Hulbert has called a meeting of league managers at the Columbus Civic Center Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Scores:

NEW KRECKEL MUSIC HONORS BP. FOERY

Publication of several new works by Philip G. Kreckel, Rochester composer and organist of St. Boniface Church has just been announced by J. Fischer Bros. of New York.

Among the compositions is a new "Ecce Sacerdos" dedicated to the Most Rev. Walter A. Foery, Bishop-elect of Syracuse. Joseph McGrath, organist and director of music at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Syracuse, a close friend of Mr. Kreckel's, will use the new work at Bishop Foery's installation on September 1.

Other compositions include a volume of 24 Latin and English motets and hymns for three voices, two soprano and alto, entitled "Regina Coeli," a new volume of wedding music containing melodious and practical processionals and recessionals, written for large or small organs.

AUBURN THEATER GROUP BIDS FAREWELL TO LAW

AUBURN George J. Law, prominent Auburn insurance man, was honored by the Little Theater Players of Holy Family Church on Wednesday of last week at a farewell dinner held at the Auburn Country Club.

In the name of the Little Theater Players, the Rev. John S. Randall presented a gift to Mr. Law.

Prominent the past year in the club's radio work, Mr. Law is leaving Auburn to resume his residence in Rochester on July 1.

Speakers at the dinner were the Rev. Donald M. Cleary, Catholic chaplain at Cornell University; Father Randall and Mrs. Helen Beardsley Landers.

Mr. Law is a former lecturer of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus.
