INCREASE SHOWN IN HOUSE PERMITS

Despite a one per cent. drop in total building permits in the Rochester district over June 1936, single house permits issued last month greatly exceeded the number for the same month in 1936.

During June eighty-nine single house permits were issued for $4,36,900 against forty-seven for $243,[illegible] during June of 1936. For the first six months of 1937 single house permits were obtained 383 for a total valuation of $1,828,250, against 176 during the corresponding period of 1936 for a total of $843,150, a fifty-four per cent. balance.

Total building in this district for the first six months of the year reached $4,729,693 against $4,67[illegible] for the same period of 1936, a two per cent. advance.

As house permits continued to reach new highs, local contractors declared that home building definitely was on the up grade.

Named Deputy

EDWARD J. GRETCHEN

HIGH STATE POST GOES TO ATTORNEY OF CANANDAIGUA

CANANDAIGUA Appointment of Edward J. Gretchen, widely known young attorney here as deputy attorney general of the state was announced here last week by Marion R. Schuyler of Naples.

Mr. Gretchen has been affiliated with the Home Owners Loan Corporation as supervisory attorney for the past three years leaving that office to take up his new duties in the Attorney General's office.

A graduate of the University of Notre Dame Mr. Gretchen received his law degree in 1923. He was admitted to the Michigan state bar, and the United States District Court for the eastern district of Michigan in 1924. In 1925 and 1927 he was with the United State Department of Justice.

Mr. Gretchen was later associated with the Detroit law firm of Routier, Nichols and Fildew and after several years with that firm engaged in private practice. While visiting relatives in this section of Western New York in 1933 he became so well pleased with Canandaigua that he decided to locate here permanently. He opened an office in the Kinde block in South Main Street in May 1934.

Mr. Gretchen is married to Helen Doud Long and they have two children, Carol Ann and Mary Jo.

He is a trustee of Canandaigua Council Knights of Columbus having been elected in June to that post.

Park To Present Acrobatic Family

The Honey Family springboard acrobats, natives of Australia will be the free attraction from July 19 to July 25 at Roseland Park, Canandaigua Lake.

Specializing in tumbling and the vast repertoire of acrobatics that goes with it the Honeys work with a spring board and high pedestal. They perform graceful leaps and twists through space singly, in pairs and in groups. They are particularly adept at midair exchanges with the shoulders of teammates, their destination. A feature of their act is a triple aerial somersault ending in a chair supported by a high pole.

Long in America the troupe retains that quality peculiar to the Antipodes, an inborn instinct for the circus. As youngsters they grew up in the world of sawdust and spangles of Australian circus contingents.

Extra Bedroom

If there is as much waste space on the other floors of your home as there is in the cellar and attic you would immediately take steps to utilize some of it. This space is neglected because it is comparatively out of sight, yet it is none the less valuable. At surprisingly small cost, by taking advantage of the Federal Housing program you can convert your unused attic or half of it into an extra bedroom. The basement, which is a place to keep the furnace but is really a dozen times too large for it will yield in most cases more than enough space for a recreation room, where children and grown-ups can pass many a pleasant hour.

WORKER HAS MORAL PRESSURE TO JOIN UNION SAYS PRIEST

TOLEDO There is a moral pressure, if not an obligation on a workman to join a worker's organization. No man can morally take a job under conditions that damage his fellows, provided he has real freedom of choice."

The Rev. John F. Cronin, S.S., of St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, made these statements at the opening session of the Summer School of Social Action for the clergy here. The school, which is being attended by priests of the Dioceses of Toledo, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, and Louisville and the Archdiocese of Detroit, will continue for four weeks under the direction of Father Cronin, the Rev. Dr. Francis Haas, Rector of St. Francis Seminary, Milwaukee, the Rev. Wilfred Parsons, S.J. of Georgetown University, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John A. Ryan, Director of the Department of Social Action of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

"The right to work," said Father Cronin, "is intimately bound up with the social system under which we live, and must be fitted in with the system of private property and private enterprise prevailing today. Because of large population, and therefore of industrial specialization, all industry is intimately connected with the community and government. Accordingly the earning of bread is tied up with the social order and the individual's life is qualified by and must qualify the social system."

TRAVEL TIPS

Travel Information available when requested by letter addressed to the Catholic Courier, Travel Bureau, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, N. Y.

To Catholics the great lure to take a trip to Italy is a keen desire to see and if possible have an audience with Pope Pius XI and to thoroughly inspect the Vatican City. A visit to Vatican City is a rare treat and in itself worth the trip to Rome.

The Basilica of St. Peter embellished by the art of Michael Angelo, and its colonnades representing Christ opening His arms to receive in a protective embrace His Millions of children spread all over the world strikes the eye. Here in St. Peter's the first apostle is buried and his bronze statue is at the right of the nave its foot worn away by the kisses of the faithful.

In the first chapel to the right is the "Pieta" of Michael Angelo so exquisite and beautiful is the expression of sorrow of the mother that it seems more like the perfect work of a painter than that of a sculptor.

The Vatican Palace, home of the Popes, is one of the marvels of the world and is situated to the right of the Basilica looking from the piazza. It was built nearly 500 years ago.

Then the picture gallery received by Pius XI is of great interest. It contains 463 pictures and numerous tapestries. Also the Vatican Museums which are undoubtedly the most precious and complete collection of antiquities in the world. Not to be forgotten during the visit is the Sistine Chapel which is the scene of the most solemn ceremonies in which His Holiness takes part. The Chapel owes its fame to the paintings on the ceilings and the "Last Judgment," which occupies the whole of the altar wall of the chapel. It is the most famous work of Michael Angelo, who worked on it without interruption from 1564 to 1541.

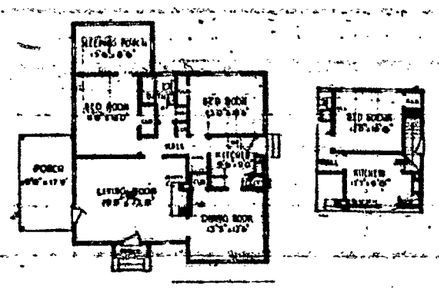
Conservative Bungalow



Lake Shores Offer Ideal Spot for This Cottage

Warm summer days point to the desirability of owning lakeside property and after a tiring day you'll admit there's nothing to rival a dip in cooling waters or at least enjoying the light breezes that come off the lake.

True, many good structures for sale dot nearby lakes and the shores of Ontario but there is something in building your own place.

This bungalow, which would make an equally fine city home is a simple design and ornamentation that would keep building costs low, a primary consideration for lakeside property. However, in its simplicity there is a great deal of comfort and efficiency.

The rooms are large and well proportioned. Some features mark its adaptability as a summer home. A good sized sleeping porch provides space for several single cots or two double beds. The remaining two bedrooms are large and the living room itself would accomodate studio couches which at night would be perfect for chance visitors.

The screened-in side porch offers sufficient shade and a view of the lake. By having just the stoop entrance you avoid having the children in wet and sandy bathing suits "hanging around."

The fireplace demonstrated its value in the spring and fall months when the nights are cool along the lakeshore. There is plenty of closet space, too, which is so often needed in a cottage. The kitchen is of good size, light and airy.

Sloping lines along the roof make this cottage ideal from an architectural standpoint. You need have no fear that winter's heavy snows will collapse the roof and at its peak the roof is high enough to divert the warmer rays of the summer sun.

Plans for this cottage provide for an alternate basement arrangement when a first floor heater is not desired.

Form London Guild Of Catholic Writers

LONDON Announcement of the formation of a Guild of Catholic Writers was made here by the Most Rev. Arthur Hinsley, Archbishop of Westminster in a statement to the Catholic papers.

Archbishop Hinsley recalls that in a recent joint pastoral letter the Hierarchy of England and Wales made an appeal for the greater support of the Catholic Press and expressed a desire for the formation of a guild of Catholic writers under the patronage of St. Francis de Sales.

His statement continues: "I wish now to make known that for the Archdiocese of Westminster I appointed some time ago a committee of experienced authors and journalists to help in bringing such a guild into existence.

"Our earnest hope was that this committee could get together a body of Catholic writers and form a plan for an association for spiritual and intellectual advancement such as would be of real advantage to themselves and to the Catholic cause.

"The plan included the establishment of a reliable Catholic Information Bureau and the organization of a Press Sunday as recommended in the joint pastoral. I now desire earnestly that the project should proceed.

"The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Ronald Knox has consented to act as chaplain. The committee, which includes the editors of the Tablet, Universe, Catholic Times, Catholic Herald and Dublin Review, consist of the following: Denis Gwynn, chairman; George Barnard, secretary. Michael de la Bedoyere, H. Smith Burgess, O.B.E.; J. P. Collins, Elisabethe Corathiel, H. S. Dean, K. C. S. G.; Reginald J. Dingle, the Rev. Dr. Bernard Grimley, Gregory Macdonald, Douglas Newton, Ernest Oldmeadow, K.C.S.G., W. R. Titterton and Doulas Woodruff."

IGNORANCE GREAT ENEMY OF CHRIST, FRANCISCANS TOLD

ALLEGANY, N. Y. "The greatest enemy of Christ is ignorance of Christ," declared the Most Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara, Bishop of Great Falls, in sounding the keynote of the nineteenth annual Franciscan Educational Conference held at St. Bonaventure College here.

Over fifty Franciscan educators and scholars from all parts of the United States and Canada convened to discuss the subjects of Catechetics and religious instruction and their tie-up with the other sciences in school curricula.

The topic of the 1937 Conference was regarded as particularly timely in that the Franciscan educators are developing in their own schools the work of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine which will hold its third annual Congress in St. Louis in October.

The presence of Bishop O'Hara, who is Chairman of the Episcopal Committee of the Confraternity, marked the only instance on record in which any but members of the First Order of Franciscans have been among the conferees. The Rev. Thomas Plassmann, O.F.M., President of the college, was Chairman.

Our Library

The Catholic School at Spencerport has a new library. It was recently made large enough, so that nearly seven hundred books can be easily placed there.

Father Predmore in his new weekly bulletin which is passed out every Sunday has issued a call for books from people in the Parish.

Children and parents alike have responded generously to this call. From them we have received nearly four hundred books, consisting of editions of History of the Nations, children's books, encyclopedia and many novels and five of the books given away by the Rochester Journal.

The school also has issued cards to the children to be brought back with one dollar, ($1.00) from which Father Finn's books will be purchased.

We hope to have the library filled before Father Duffy comes because he is very much interested in the building of libraries in the Catholic School.

Archbishop Asks Shelter For Spain's War Victims

LONDON The Most Rev. Arthur Hinsley, the Archbishop of Westminster, has issued an appeal to Catholics here to offer hospitality to women, children and old men who have been sheltered in the Chilean Embassy at Madrid and who are to be evacuated.

"For many months the Chilean Embassy in Madrid has housed and cared for no less than 1440 refugees, of the class of those Spaniards who felt themselves in great danger," the Archbishop said.

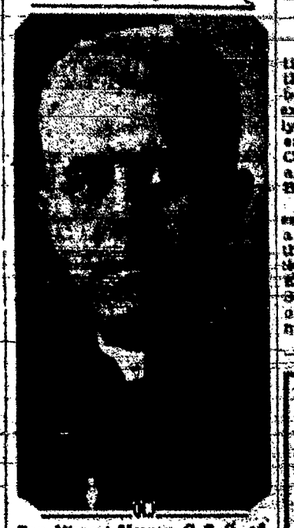
Directs Boy Work



Rev. Vincent Mooney, C.S.C., of Scottdale, Pa., former head of the Department of Physical Education at Notre Dame University, and the priest who instructed and baptized Knute Rockne, has been chosen to direct the new bureau of boy life organized by the National Council of Catholic Men. Father Mooney will have his headquarters in Washington, D. C.

A Vocation

A vocation is the calling one chooses to follow for his life's work. It may mean a profession in the medical world, a profession in the realm of business or a call to life in religion.

When you choose a vocation, be sure to pick one that is suited to your ability and taste. If one were to engage in a work not suited to him, he might become a sad failure.

There are many lines of work to choose from nowadays and a boy, when he reaches the Eighth Grade, ought to have some idea of what he wishes to do in later life.

One good thing is to talk over his desire with his mother and father. This will help him to make a good choice. His course of study will be determined by his choice of a calling.
