AUBURN PARISH PICNICS ATTRACT LARGE CROWDS

By M. R. WELCH
Catholic Courier Service

AUBURN—Over 500 parishioners attended the first annual basket picnic and Field Day held Sunday at the Columbian Squires Camp, on Owasco Lake, under the sponsorship of the United Societies of St. Alphonsus Church.

The main features of the afternoon included a series of baseball games and quoit matches under the supervision of Frank Steigerwald and Mortimer Hyland Sr. In addition there were innumerable games, races and novelty stunts for both the children and adults. Sound equipment was erected on the grounds, with the announcing capably handled by the Rev. Walter Fischer.

The large committees, who worked untiringly to make this affair a "grand" success, included representatives from the Holy Name Society, the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society, the Catholic Action League, the Columbian Squires, the Young Ladies Sodality and Troop 12 of the Boy Scouts from St. Alphonsus Church.

St. Hyacinth Outing

AUBURN—The St. Hyacinth Parish Annual Picnic and Field Day was held on Sunday at Falcon Park. A varied field program, prepared, was enjoyed by young and old. A softball game was staged between the married and single men after which the various games and contests were enjoyed. A concert was also rendered by the Falcon Band. In the evening, dancing was enjoyed with music furnished by Frank Olcsis and his orchestra. Plans for the picnic were under the direction of the Rev. Stanislaus Hutobowicz, pastor, assisted by a general committee.

In the morning at the 10:30 o'clock Mass at St. Hyacinth's Church, following an old Polish custom, the annual blessing of flowers, herbs and spices took place.

Watch Ball Game

AUBURN—Hundreds of Auburn softball fans gathered at the "Y" Field to witness the All-Star team of the Auburn Holy Name Softball League tackle the world's champions, the Kodak Team from the Flower City last night.

Proceeds from the affair were turned over to the Rev. William H. Cowon, pastor of St. Mary's Church, who added it to the fund necessary for the equipping and carrying on of the New St. Mary's Hall.

Only the Christian ideal can make [illegible] true man.—Archbishop Keane.
