Aquinas Set For Opener With Batavia

Coach Johnny Sullivan of Aquinas has his squad on edge for the opening game against the strong Batavia High at Edgerton Park, Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

After four weeks of hard drilling Coach Sullivan has his eleven in fine condition for this game. Bladegreen, who was expected to start in the Aquinas fullback position, will probably be kept on the bench because of a bruised arm suffered in a scrimmage.

All the World Moves When Workers Advance

Food, Clothes and Shelter are Bare Living

Telephones, Radios, Cameras, Automobiles, Electric Refrigeration, Modern Plumbing and the like are called luxuries. Without them America would be living in a Log Cabin and traveling in a Covered Wagon. There would be no great industry.

The Democratic Party in Nation, State and City—Always the Party of the People—believes these luxuries are necessities for the people.

The record establishes this.
