

WHAM
1150 KC

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22
6:45 P. M.—Lowell Thomas. Sunoco's News Voice of the Air.
7:45 P. M.—Atlantic Sportsman. Frank Silva gives latest football dope.
8:52 P. M.—Death Valley Days. The story of the holdup man with the gray beard.
9:00 P. M.—Pontiac Variety Show. Broadcast from the University of Virginia.
9:30 P. M.—Tommy Dorsey. With his famous swing orchestra.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23
1:00 P. M.—Syracuse vs Maryland Football team. Broadcast from Baltimore.
6:15 P. M.—Linger Awhile. Variety musical program.
7:00 P. M.—Frank and Hank. With the Old Timers Orchestra.
9:00 P. M.—The National Barn Dance. Steve Vinson with Uncle Ezra and his gang.
11:00 P. M.—Ezra News. Late news from the United Press.
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24
9:00 P. M.—The Magic Key of M.A. The Magic Key orchestra conducted by Dr. Frank Black. Milton Cross, master of ceremonies, guest star.
9:00 P. M.—On Broadway. Dramatic sketch of everyday folk on this famous street.
10:30 P. M.—Amie Sunshine Melodies. Smilin' Ed McConnell.
11:00 P. M.—The Bakers Broadcast. Music by Ozzie Nelson's Orchestra, songs by Maxell Hillard and stories by Peg Murray.
12:00 P. M.—General Motors Symphony Orchestra. Enzo Raposo conducting.
9:00 P. M.—Hollywood Playhouse. Starring Tyrone Power.
MONDAY, OCTOBER 25
1:00 P. M.—Three to Nine. Lloyd Shaffer's orchestra. John H. Gambling, master of ceremonies. Harry McKinley, baritone and the Griffin chorus.
7:30 P. M.—The German Hour. Music of the Fatherland. Charles Siverman conducting.
8:30 P. M.—Variety Show. Variety program with Cal Finney, master of ceremonies.
10:00 P. M.—Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra. Eugene Ormandy, conducting.
10:30 P. M.—Edwin Pagan Band. An open forum on crime, conducted by Warder, Levy, & Laves.
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26
8:00 P. M.—United States Marine Band. Sixty minutes of exceptional band music.
9:15 P. M.—Vic Arden's Orchestra. With famous guest stars.
9:00 P. M.—Hubbush and Wives. Discussing marital problems.
9:30 P. M.—The De De Dance. Music and dramatizations. Frankie Masters orchestra. Masters Voice, singing ensemble and Edgar A. Quest.
10:00 P. M.—General Hugh Johnson. News commentary.
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27
1:15 P. M.—Comedy Stars of Broadway. Frank Crumit and a fast-moving musical program.
8:00 P. M.—Eddie Duchin and His Orchestra. Music as only Eddie can play it.
9:30 P. M.—Ski Shabby from Hollywood. News from the film center of the world.
9:00 P. M.—National Comedy Hits. Hit selections from scores of well known musical comedies.
10:30 P. M.—Waltz Interlude. Ernest Gill and his Orchestra.
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28
7:30 P. M.—True Stories of the New York State Police. Taken from the files of the New York's State Police.
8:15 P. M.—Alma Gray and the Casa Loma Orchestra. Presented by Oldsmobile.
8:30 P. M.—The March of Time. Dramatized news stories.
9:15 P. M.—NBC Concert Hour. Conducted by H. Leppold Spitalny.
10:30 P. M.—NBC Night Club. With Hanson Sherman as master of ceremonies.

IN ONE WE ARE
By ART KELLY

One of the most widely heard programs now on WHAM is the station's "Ezra News Reporter." It seems that everyone is interested in the news and everyone listens to WHAM's newscasts.

Four times daily, seven days a week, this ethereal newspaper goes into homes of thousands of listeners and offers an up-to-the-minute report of local, national and international situations as reported by world correspondents of the famous United Press.

The working of this world-circling news bureau is indeed interesting. Terminating at the United Press building in New York City are cables from all parts of the world. Messages coming in on these cables are re-written by radio editors and the stories, bulletins or flashes are then sent out on a special wire to the stations subscribing to the United Press service.

This service is operated by WHAM 15 hours a day and supplies WHAM's news reporter, A. S. Sloan, and Tom Murray, with an abundant supply of late news reports. WHAM's special wire operates a teletypewriter similar to a regular typewriter except that it is without a key board and runs by electrical impulses sent from the New York P. O. office. A strong light is used to see this machine typing out news in a never varying speed and with very few errors.

Most of the more serious type news to be very much in the limelight these days. The second of two concerts by the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Arturo Toscanini, will be heard over the NBC Radio network on Saturday, October 23, from 9:30 to 10:30 p. m. In spare time Arthur Rodzinski is busy rehearsing the newly created NBC Symphony Orchestra for the concert series to be conducted by Arturo Toscanini, greatest of living conductors. Rodzinski himself will conduct the NBC Symphony Orchestra in ten seasons, three before the Toscanini series and seven later.

Speaking of the Toscanini series brings to mind the fact that a recent announcement by the NBC Department of Special Events is that the station will broadcast a combined NBC and Red Network of the NBC will on Saturday nights from 10 to 11:30 p. m., beginning November 13, hear the series of major concerts presented by the newly created NBC Symphony. Toscanini states his series with the orchestra on "Christmas Night."

First reports of the series scheduled the program for the NBC-Red but but insistent demands from listeners in all parts of the country caused the pressure to be so change from the NBC-Red to the NBC-Red. It was decided upon to make possible the largest Saturday night audience ever served.

Somewhere in the Bristol Valley is a little town known as "Bloom." You can find it on your highway map because its exact geographical location is a matter of speculation among those who hear WHAM listeners who recognize the town as the home of Herb Higgins and Hank Hooper, popular WHAM old cronies.

Recently has searched the valley from one end to the other—from East Bloomfield to Naples and from Naples over to Penn Yan and not a sign of the widely known village have I found.

Somewhere in the valley I thought I would at least see the sign of the Higgins-Hooper Philly Station or the Alex. Town Service but these were also missing.

Cene Lane, author of the Hank and Herb series told me recently that he places the mythical town of "Bloom" somewhere between Middlesex and Naples.

There is a program to watch for Arturo Toscanini, great conductor and master of the orchestra, who will conduct the NBC Symphony Orchestra on Saturday, October 23, in a concert of works by Johannes Brahms to be heard by the American radio audience over the NBC-Red Network from 9:30 to 11:30 p. m. Program will include Brahms' "Requiem" and "Tragic Overture."

Here is another radio story for Ripley John Brown, veteran member of Walter O'Keefe's Town Hall Stock Company heard Wednesday at 9 p. m. on the NBC-Red network, reports that he has been shot 748 times, averaged 1.33 times a day, 916 times, proposed 1.61 times all in radio scripts.

True stories of dog heroism will be dramatized in a new NBC-Red net series to be heard Sunday from 4:45 to 5 p. m. Episodes will be awarded to dog heroes each week.

Don't forget Tommy Dorsey's new Friday night time 9:30 to 11:10 p. m.

Don Harris of WHAM Alarm Clock fame, has left Rochester to take an announcer's job with WIND-Gary, Ind. Well known as an entertainer, gagster and radio news announcer, over WHAM Harris travels Westward to take his place in the radio world one step nearer to his ambition—NBC.

These camera views show a "drama factory" in operation, photographed at the Blackfriars Institute of Dramatic Art, Catholic University of America. (1) Lay and religious students learn the technique of the drama in make-up; (2) a section of the class in costume making; (3) a section of the class in the "Children's Theater"; and (4) the Rev. Dr. Urban Nagle, O.P., director of the Institute. (Photos by HARRY R. RAULT.)

Leader Of Catholic Theater To Talk Here

The Rev. Dr. Urban Nagle, O.P., director of Blackfriars Institute of Dramatic Art, Catholic University of America, Washington, will come here to address a meeting to be sponsored by the Catholic Theatre Guild at Nazareth College, on Thursday evening, October 22, at 8:15 o'clock.

Anyone interested in Catholic drama is urged to attend. Purpose of the meeting is outlined in the Rev. John R. Randall's column.

"We are particularly anxious to reach all parish dramatic societies. Not that the autonomy of such organizations will be disturbed but simply to organize some central action which will be able to offer the best in Catholic theatre."

Father Nagle will visit in Rochester during the week of October 28. He is scheduled to address the student body at St. Bernard's Seminary Sunday evening, October 31.

Founder of the Catholic Theatre Movement from its inception, Father Nagle is founder and organizer of the Blackfriars Guild, organized in Washington some six years ago. The Guild now has affiliated chapters in at least ten other cities.

Guided by Emmett L. Lavery, nationally known Catholic playwright and author of the "First Legion," a National Catholic Theatre project was introduced at Chicago last June.

Summer Course Held

With three hundred delegates present, possibilities of such a movement were discussed. The groundwork was laid in Chicago and the movement was further advanced in Washington where at the instigation of Father Nagle a summer course in Catholic drama was incorporated into the curriculum of the Catholic University.

The Paris experiment at the University was converted into a theatre workshop. With an enrollment of over 100, nine plays were produced in the six days of the course.

A conference attended by 700 delegates concluded the summer session. The result was a National Catholic Theatre with the Rev. H. Manney, president of the Catholic Repertory Theatre of New York at its head.

Mission Broadcast From Vatican Set

(Continued from Page 1)

be marked by special events. A marble tablet honoring Pauline Barton, founder of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will be unveiled at the Cathedral of St. Louis in New Orleans at the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade.

Another event of the week was the arrival in Lyon, France, of a commemorative floral wreath sent by members of the Society in America to the tomb of Pauline Jaricot.

In a statement, the National Office of the Society notes that many years before any idea of organized Catholic mission support was conceived, more than a century before "Mission Monday" was thought of, it was the privilege and pleasure of kings to give financial aid to the task of Christianizing the pagan.

Burden On Common People

In other words the burden of promoting this primary work of the Church on earth rested upon the upper classes rather than upon the "common people," as is the case today, the statement continues.

"After the French revolution, which broke up the unity between the Church and the civil power," declared the statement, "aims for the missions, instead of being included in the government budgets, came as a gift from individuals in European royalty and aristocracy. Early aids of mission activity give abundant evidence of this benevolence."

"With the rapid spread of the Society's system of collecting small sums of money from large numbers of people," the statement adds, "the dependence upon the largesse of monarchs and the upper classes grew less and less, the chief characteristic of the Society today is that its membership represents the 'average' Catholic."

Guild Completes Plans For Social

AUXILIARY—Committee members who have been completing plans for the Flower Guild Social to be held Friday evening, October 22, at Nazareth-on-Owasco, were entertained at a tea Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 at the home of Miss Loretta A. Donahue, general chairman.

Guests were Miss Isabel T. Goss, president of the Merry Hospital Guild; Mrs. Bertha E. Stanford, superintendent of nurses at the Hospital; Miss Adeline Lauer, sister of the Flower Guild; and Miss Mary Agnes Brennan, president of the Flower Guild.

BASILIAN TO GIVE WOMEN'S RETREAT

An event, which many members and friends of the Catholic Women's Club are anticipating, is the annual "Day of Recollection," which is to be held at Nazareth College on the East of "Christ, the King," Sunday, October 31.

The master of the retreat will be the Rev. Hugh J. Haffey, C. S. B., a teacher of science at Aquinas Institute and formerly of the faculty of St. Michael's College in Toronto.

Mrs. Leo F. Simpson has appointed Mrs. Louis A. Whalen in charge of arrangements. The programme of the day planned by Mrs. Whalen is as follows: 8:30 Mass and Holy Communion; 9:00 Breakfast; 10:30 Conference; 11:00 Spiritual Reading; 12:30 Dinner; 2:30 Conference; 4:00 Benediction and closing prayers.

Reservations are limited and must be made before Thursday, October 28 at the clubhouse on Alexander St.

Sequelore Holds To Meet

BERNARDINI—in the course of an interview by Patriarch Berardini, who is head (Master) of Administrator Perpetua) of the Order of the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre, has officially confirmed the decision to convene in Jerusalem next year an International Congress of the famous institution.

You Will Find a Complete Line at Humphrey's Liquor Store
THE STORE OF UNDISPUTED QUALITY
677 Monroe Ave.
PHONE MONROE 1167 for prompt delivery

For Continued Good Government
In Your County Sheriff's Office

ELECT

JOHN J. HENNER

ZIPPER BINDERS
We've a grand assortment of these handy cases, in which to carry your important papers and plans.
HEINRICH-SEIBOLD
STATIONERY CO.
48 Exchange St. Phone 2664 Main 2664

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Thanks!
MR. JACOBSTEIN

This Clipping Taken From The Democrat and Chronicle of Sunday, October 18th:

GOP PLATFORM DRAWS BLASTS BY JACOBSTEIN

Campaign Head of Democrats Cites Party Record

You Slew Two Birds With This One Blast!

The Republican Machine and your KOMENSKI-CARLOLA-KELLY FACTION

WHAT you said, pointedly, about the Republican platform speaks for itself, as reported by the Democrat & Chronicle in the clipping on the left.

INADVERTENTLY perhaps, you slew another "bird"—"The record," you said, "was good and a clean one."

YES indeed, And it's the record of the Stanton administration which your party is now to turn out of office. It's the record of the administration whose officials now comprise the Citizens Party.

ELECT ALL FIVE COUNCIL CANDIDATES OF THE CITIZENS PARTY

- CHARLES STANTON
- JULIUS HOESTERY, Jr.
- JOSEPH E. SILVERSTEIN
- ARTHUR A. DAVIS
- JOSEPH P. COLLINS

DO YOU WANT TO DO YOUR BIT?

The Citizens' Party is an independent movement formed by a group of public spirited citizens who are convinced that good city government in Rochester can only be assured by retaining the Stanton-Baker administration in office. Having no party "organization"—no political "machine"—and being unpledged to any groups or organizations, the Citizens Party naturally has only limited funds with which to acquaint the voters with its candidates and their policies. If you want to help, send or bring a contribution to Dr. Emmett Finucane, Room 222, Powers Hotel. Every dollar contributed is an investment in good government in Rochester.

TO INSURE THE CONTINUATION OF GOOD, CLEAN CITY GOVERNMENT BY A PROPER CITY ADMINISTRATION YOU MUST VOTE

THE STRAIGHT CITIZENS TICKET

Look for the Liberty Bell. Pull down levers numbered 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 in Row G, third row at front of polls.