C PRESS TO WELCOME A GREAT NEW LEADER

Diocesan Union Sponsors St. Thomas More Novena

The first effort of the Union in Catholic Action was the Holy Name Rally held at the Red Wing Stadium, Rochester, on June 12, 1932. There were over 10,000 Holy Name men from all parts of the diocese who participated in this magnificent spectacle.

Due to the demand for speakers at Holy Name meetings the Diocesan Union formed a Lay Speakers Bureau, which lists also laymen who are well versed in Catholic teachings and who are capable of presenting the Catholic viewpoint on present day problems.

Speakers and their subjects available for Holy Name Society meetings are: Harry B. Crowley, "The Catholic Boy Problem;" James E. Cuff, "The Real Presence from a Lawyer's Viewpoint;" Philip J. Donnelly, "Saints the Twice;" Rev. Robert T. Dwyer, "Catholic Laymen;" Louis A. Langie, "Catholic Citizenship, What Does It Mean?" Clyde O'Brien, "Pioneer Catholic Laymen, the Catholic Layman's Responsibility;" Emmett O'Brien, "The Catholic View of Education;" Norman A. O'Brien, "The Catholic Layman;" B. Edward Shlesinger, "Our First Catholic Chief Justice;" Kirt Smith, "Subversive Activities (Communistic);" Charles A. Tucker, "The Little Martyrs;" "What Is Real Education?"

This organization also says that the Union has accomplished much good in the general success of the Holy Name Societies.

The 500th anniversary of the Holy Name Society was observed Jan. 6, 1933, by a series of rallies in central churches. On that day over 10,000 Holy Name men received Holy Communion in their own parish churches in the morning and returned in the afternoon to central churches to take part in uniform services. The attendance at these rallies proved that interest in Holy Name matters had been aroused.

Held First Convention

The first convention of the Union was held in the Rochester Civic Center on March 28, 1933, and was attended by over 500 delegates and spiritual directors from all parts of the Diocese. An election of officers was held at this convention and the following officers were elected to serve terms of two years: president, B. Edward Shlesinger; vice presidents, Norman A. O'Brien, William G. Wynn, Charles J. Knapp, secretary, Andrew Wiest, treasurer, Joseph Catalina; marshall, John W. Dieringer; vice president of the Auburn district, William McLane; vice president of the Geneva District, T. Edward Bickle; vice president of the Corning District, Richard McElligott; vice president of the Elmira District, E. Francis O'Dea.

In order to strengthen the Union, the appointment by Bishop O'Hern of Spiritual Directors for the various Deaneries was announced by Father Stauder, as follows: The Rev. L. A. Jones, Auburn; the Rev. John J. Healy, Geneva; the Rev. Daniel A. McCarthy, Elmira; and the Rev. Lawrence Gannon, Corning.

Rally In Bishop's Honorary

The second open air rally was held Sunday, June 11, 1933, at the Red Wing Stadium, Rochester. This rally was dedicated to the memory of the late Bishop O'Hern and the Catholic men of the Rochester Diocese again gave an outstanding demonstration of their Catholicism. The principal speaker was the Rev. Thomas V. Moylan, O. P., of New York City, National Director of Holy Name Society. The lay speaker was Alexander J. Clarke of New York City.

Through the influence of the Holy Name Diocesan Union a Spiritual Bouquet was offered for the intention and general welfare of our Bishop, the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney, on the second Sunday of January, 1934. Nearly seven thousand men participated, offering their Holy Communion and hearing Mass for the intention.

7,000 At Elmira Rally

In March of 1934 the Elmira Deanery Union was organized with the Rev. Daniel A. McCarthy as spiritual director; president, Clarence H. Kennedy; vice president, Dr. Walter C. Erwin; secretary, Thomas H. Dean; treasurer, John Reidy; marshall, Stephan Bednarek; publicity chairman, Cornelius J. Milliken.

At the organization meeting it was decided to hold an open air rally at Elmira during 1934, with all parishes in the Diocese taking part. A delegation of 700 men from Rochester and surrounding towns attended the Elmira Rally. The total attendance was estimated to be 7,000 men.

Aid Diocesan Paper

A subscription campaign was instituted in September, 1934 for the CATHOLIC COURIER, by the Union, in accordance with the expressed wish of Archbishop Mooney at the convention in April of that year. The campaign ran for six weeks and resulted in approximately 2,000 new subscribers. A subsequent campaign was organized during Catholic Press months in 1935 which added nearly another 1,000 subscribers.

The third convention of the Holy Name Union was held April 28, 1935, at St. Mary's Church and hall, Canandaigua, N. Y. Officers were elected for the ensuing two years: president, B. Edward Shlesinger; vice presidents, Norman O'Brien, Joseph P. MacSweeney, Roy W. Crissy, William McLane, T. W. Bickle, C. H. Kennedy and Richard McElligott; secretary, Roy W. Crissy; financial secretary, Francis E. Wolfe; treasurer, James D'Amico; marshall, John W. Dieringer.

At this convention resolutions were adopted concerning several important questions, including the Mexican Situation, the Child Labor Amendment, and Lending Libraries.

Meeting in Convention at St. Michael's Church Hall, Penn Yan, April 19, 1936, the Union decided on
