Appeal for Research... TORONTO An appeal for research into parish histories and the publication of results has been made by the Committee on Catholic Historical Research of the Canadian Catholic Historical Association.

By Margaret Worthington... May we offer congratulations to the Rochester Social Unity Society and all of its members who are so busy and yet so successful in their efforts to help the young and women of Holy Family parish upon their organization into a Sodality.

There is a great need among parish Social Unity Societies for a diligent following of Social Unity organization and activities as outlined by the Queen's work staff, pointed out on last month's visit to Rochester.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Monica's Church held a card party for members and friends Monday evening, November 22. Proceeds will be used to help defray the expense of providing recreation for orphans at Columbus Civic Center during the winter.

SHRINES IN THE HOME... (Continued from last week) The little shrine in the home has worked wonders for others. It will work wonders for you. Mention may be made of FIVE converts due to ONE shrine in ONE home. Can you and you and you refuse the opportunity to bring ONE soul back to Christ?

A simple little family shrine may be prepared for less than a dollar. A simple crucifix or statue, a little candle holders with candles, two little vases or pots of flowers, can all be had at any drug store. Complete this with a little vigil light and holder, light it for 15 minutes each day with attention and you will find the answer to your prayer.

In no N. C. W. home can God light go out. A shrine in every Catholic home and the daily recitation of the Rosary is the goal of the National Committee of Shrines in the Home.

Do your Sodality meetings... It isn't sulphur and tasses that make a Sodality. It is the devotion of its members. Miss Helen Lunter has a list of Class A Group I Sodality who will speak at your meetings of Communion breakfasts in any subject pertaining to Sodality that you may choose. They will offer suggestions. The service is both quiet and graceful.

That "it is more blessed to give than to receive" will be the keynote of the Sodality supper meeting at Immaculate Conception hall, 140 N. Broadway, for the Holy Family Sodality. This is the Sodality's gift to its members. The only requirement is that it be paid. There will be a Christmas tree. Gifts will be exchanged. Christmas carols will be sung led by the newly-formed Glees Club. Invitations for Christmas baskets for the poor will be accepted at this meeting.

Immaculate Sodality had a splendid opportunity to complete their spiritual banquet for the Holy Father during the novena conducted by the Dominican Fathers in preparation for the feast of Immaculate Conception. About 100 Sodality members were present. In one of his sermons the Father addressed Sodality members, urging them to imitate the Blessed Virgin's virtues, especially her obedience to the will of God.
