HOLY CHILDHOOD ASSOCIATION

Rev. John S. Randall, Director

FEBRUARY PROJECT: Did you read in the CATHOLIC COURIER last week of the visit of Bishop Paul Yu Pin to Rochester?

Of course, the thing they need most is bandages. Maybe some of your friends would be glad to give you some to send to the sufferers of China?

Receptions: A few more schools held their Holy Childhood Receptions last week. Friday I went to Holy Rosary in the morning and St. Mary's in the afternoon.

School Report: I'll bet you can't guess who leads the parade this morning. It's the boys of St. Andrew's.

Two more adoptions bring their total for the week to four. The seventh and eighth grades ransom Letha Roberta Petronella, a Negro baby and St. Mary's.

Following close behind we find St. John the Evangelist, Rochester with three adoptions.

Enclosed is five dollars for a negro baby John Sullivan.

Next is St. Mary's, Corning I spent a few minutes with these children last Sunday.

Seminarians Join 'First Legion' Cast

Sixteen St. Andrew's Students To Take Part in Auditorium Play

Sixteen students for the first time have joined the cast of "The First Legion" which will be presented by the Blackfriars Guild at the Auditorium in East Main Street next Friday and Saturday evenings with a Saturday matinee.

These students from St. Andrew's Seminary will take the part of Janit novices and also chant the "Te Deum" in one of the latter acts of the play which stars Bert Lyell, long a favorite with Rochester theatrical audiences.

The Rev. Benedict Ehmman, director of the Blackfriars Guild will direct the chorists. Hugh Dodge will be at the organ.

Mr. Lyell who will arrive in Rochester Wednesday for last night's performance will be the Rochester cast under the direction of Miss Marion O'Neil will play the part of Father Aern in the production.

Lyell plays the role of the Rev. Mark Aern of the Society of Jesus, a role he created when the play was presented for the first time on Broadway on October 1, 1934.

After four months on Broadway, "The First Legion" went on the road for a week tour.

It has been translated in many foreign languages and has received the applause of audiences in Vienna, Budapest, Paris, London, Rome and Berlin. The German version of "The First Legion" played for one solid year in Switzerland.

At a meeting of the ticket committee held last night, it was announced today that the box office sale not only for the two evening performances but for the Saturday matinee as well.

The Rev. John S. Randall, director of the Blackfriars Guild announced today that the box office sale for the Saturday matinee is as follows: Tickets also can be obtained at the Columbus Civic Center offices.

This must be Old Home Week. We have another ransom to report from one of our most loyal friends in fact, their name should appear at the top of all our reports.

Next Monday is Valentine's Day. Have you thought of giving a Valentine to the Christ Child?
