

20 Eight

Drama Club Presents
Popular Comedy

The John Dramatic Club will present a revised royal comedy, "The Comedy of Errors," at Grace Chapel, Gates, Friday, February 11. The play will be held in the afternoon for the children at 2:30 p.m., and the main performance will be in the evening at 8:15 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Hotel C. Dubin, 8th & Broad Street. The admission will be $2.25 for adults and 75 cents for children in the afternoon.

ZIPPER BINDERS
A new kind of equipment that holds papers in place carry your important reports and plans.

SINRICH - SEIBOLD
STATIONERY CO.

TESTING
SEARCHING
IMPROVING

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Our Responsibility

In his address, His Excellency emphasized Catholic women and their great responsibility in the world today. Woman, he said, is respected by man as intelligent and cultured and the guiding factor in religious and educational work.

Need for study clubs among Catholic women was urged by Mrs. Ryan as a means for developing Christian Womanhood, which she said, is the foundation for any accomplishment.

Other speakers included Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. Elizabeth Shannon, priests and members of the court.

Never have we had so many opportunities to do good and to help others in the work of the church.

DELICIOUS MILK

CALL

MEGMAN

Dairy

Call 1-2000

ANDREWS MARKET INC.

1178 FRONT STREET

Phone Attention to Phone 6-1010

Phone Main 3167-3168

Lasts Longer

Prompt Service and Courteous Drivers

PAYNE & DUNHAM

32 Bronson Ave.

Call 2-5666

Commend C.D.A. Court For 25 Year Record

HORNELL—Citing the ideals of true "Catholic Womanhood" the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, praised members of Court St. Ann, Catholic Daughters of America, for upholding those ideals during the 25 years of the Court's existence.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop's inspiring message was heard at the 25th anniversary celebration of the Court at Hotel Sherwood last week. Among three hundred who attended the banquet was Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Poughkeepsie, State Regent, many members of the clergy and Catholic Daughters Federal from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

Openings:

Observation of the Jubilee was opened with a celebration of Mass at St. Ann's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney assisted by the Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure

in visiting diocesan in Horwell. During the day visits were made by the Bishop and priests to St. Ann's School, St. John's Mercy Hospital and friends.

Anticipate the wants of others without waiting till you are asked!

True charity tells us how they may stand in need.

Men of arrangements and planning were spoken by the Rev. William F. Naughton, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Rochester and first chaplain of the court and other members of the clergy.