Sodality To Give Farce-Comedy At Nazareth

Annual play of the Sodality of Our Lady at Nazareth Academy will be presented on Monday evening, February 28. Business manager is Mildred Curtin, chairman of the Dramatic Committee. This year's choice, "Here She Comes," is a farce-comedy in three acts. Nickie Brooks, clever young coed, is being initiated into the dramatic club, her stunt being to impersonate Maritza Lopez, famous movie queen, for twenty-four hours at the Palm Tree Inn. Every young man well until the star herself appears on the scene, and then things begin to happen. Ruth Roland has the dual lead in the part of Nickie Brooks and Maritza Lopez. Her colleagues, Vi and Polly, are played by Evelyn Hogan and Margaret Cullane. Other parts are taken as follows: "Mrs. Goldstein" by Catherine Zwick; "Betty" Eileen Sharkey; "Madame Lowell" Monica Noll; "Mrs. J. Huddington Jones" Eugene Curtis; "Luella" Eileen Egan; "Pat O'Keefe" Doris Hummer; "Sally" Mary Jane Maid; "The do-oughty Irish maid of Palm Tree Inn" Clea Quigley and "Carolina Lopez" adoring negro maid, Evelyn Pallott.

JUNIOR LEAGUERS QUIZZED AT MEETING

At the February meeting of the Holy Family Junior League held on St. Valentine's Night, at the Imperial Lounge, attractive red decorations were prevalent, with red tulips gracing the tables. Seated at the speakers' table were the Rev. Francis Harding and the Rev. J. J. O'Connell, who were guest speaker officers and committee members. During the evening singing was led by Miss Loretta Donohue and Mrs. Dorothy Gormley with Miss Mary Day as accompanist. Following the dinner an entertaining program entitled "School Days" was conducted by Miss Anne Welch. These present were forced to don their "thinking caps" when questions concerning "every thing under the sun" were asked of them. Miss Margaret Maywalt was successful in capturing the prize for the highest score.

SODAL TALK

Remembering the Activities of the Rochester Parish Sodality Union.

A news item from the Immaculate Conception Sodality reminds us that the Probation time is at hand. The Sodality, under the leadership of Mrs. George Collins, Chairman of Probation, announced that a series of four meetings will be held in the next month with the members of the eighth grade to prepare them for entrance into the Sodality. After a general meeting to explain the ideals and setting of the Sodality, Committee Chairman will assist Mrs. Collins by assisting the young ladies with the activities of their probation committees. Preceding their probation in May, they will attend three regular meetings of the Sodality.

Father Donald Lux addressed the Sodality of St. Bridget's at their meeting on February 23. Final arrangements were made at the meeting for a social to be held by the Sodality, February 28 from 9 to 11. The following Sodality leaders have charge of the preparations: General chairman, Helen Carroll, or chairman, Kay Smith and B. Burke, arrangements, Rita Fleming, Mary Mann and Dot Welch, tickets, Virginia Thompson, Angie and Antoinette Costello, reception, Rita Malampy.

Sodality of Mary of St. Boniface Church will hold its annual Mother and Daughter banquet, Monday evening, February 28. An entertaining evening is planned by the committee, with Joyce Miller, general chairman and Lorraine Schuler, honorary chairman. Entertainment is in charge of Mary Helen Hays, decorations, Loretta Bourbot; tickets, Lucille Trompeter, publicity, Arline Fallon, waitresses and tickets, Louis Hill, Mary Clare Heeting and Betty Ruby. Miss Helen Ehmman is to be toastmistress.

You will be glad to hear that another splendid Father Lent has taken off the press and into Sodality Headquarters where it awaits you. It is "DON'T LIKE LENT." Without further word, we'll let the Lent tempt you.

We would like to correct a notice made in last week's SODAL TALK of the Bowling League meeting at Holy Family Hall on Sunday, February 27. Those interested will meet at 8:30 in the afternoon instead of in the evening as erroneously stated.

Formal Father, I offer thee the wounds of our Lord Jesus Christ to heal the wounds of my soul. It takes a Sodalita to bring honor to the Kodak City. Miss Alice Schausell, Publicity Chairman of Holy Family Sodality, was just captured in the March 1st National Photo Contest sponsored by the Queen's Work. We're doing our best to you, Alice!
