Around Catholic World

BISHOP ELEVATED
London (H)—His Holiness Pope Pius XI has elevated the Most Rev. Lester Amigo Bishop of Southwark to the rank of Archbishop. He will be known as Archbishop Peter Amigo Bishop of Southwark.

PLAN JESUIT CONFERENCE
Vatican (H)—A Grand Council of the Society of Jesus is to be held in Rome on March 11. The "armor" of the Society of Jesus is to be discussed. The grand council was summoned, it is stated, to modify the Society's program of study and training, namely the Ratio Studiorum, according to the "spirit" of the times.

DECORATES BISHOP
Paris (H)—The same promotion given the Very Rev. Henry Hyernat of the Catholic University of America was given the rosette of an officer of the Legion of Honor. The cross of chevalier was awarded by the President of the Republic to the Very Rev. Georges de La Motte, and member of the Academie Française.

FINDS QUIET
London (H)—When I was attending a luncheon conference at Smith's Falls, the only quiet place I could find was in the Catholic Church. I went in and spent half an hour. The Rev. J. J. Black told me to a congregation of the United Church here. He emphasized that the world today is given to too much noise and bustle.

NEEDS CHURCHES
Travandrum (H)—Converts have been made by the thousands and more than 30 priests have been reunited to the Catholic Church from the Jacobite churches. There still is a vast field to be reaped and he is faced with urgent demands for the building of more churches. The Most Rev. Mar Ivanios Archbishop of Travandrum reveals.

G. D. A. ACTS
New York (H)—The Supreme Board of the Catholic Daughters of America has adopted a resolution condemning the practice of "mercy killing" as a pagan philosophy. The resolution said that euthanasia presupposes "man's authority to end life before its natural close" and is a practice that is "irreligious, unscientific and criminal."

OBSERVE FEAST
Dublin (H)—The Feast of St. Brigid was celebrated with special devotion in many parts of Ireland and notably at St. James Church, this city, where a relic of the Saint was carried in procession.

Bishop Kearney's Lenten Letter

Beloved in Christ:
The spirit of the Season of Lent finds expression in the significant prayer which appears in the Mass for the opening Sunday of the Holy Season.

That this beautiful sacramental of Ash Wednesday may stir you to a sincere Lenten spirit, and that an abundance of Divine Grace may be your happy portion is the sincere prayer of your devoted Shepherd in Christ.

James E. Kearney
BISHOP OF ROCHESTER

Lenten Regulations

- All week-days of Lent up to noon of Holy Saturday are fast days.
- All persons who have completed their twenty-first year, and have not yet commenced their sixtieth year of age, are bound under pain of mortal sin to fast, unless they are exempted or dispensed.
- The law of fasting implies essentially that only one full meal a day be taken either at noon or in the evening, but the law also permits a very light breakfast of bread with coffee, tea or cocoa, as well as a lunch either at midday or in the evening.
- The following persons are excused from the obligation of fasting—the sick and convalescent; pregnant and nursing women; those who do hard and exhausting labor; and those who cannot fast without doing grave injury to their health or without seriously interfering with their daily duties.

Pardon Us

THE TOTAL RESULTS of the Third annual Students Catholic Press Crusade swamped us. Tabulation of all the orders is taking more time than anticipated.

THE RESULT is that much as we wanted to do it the announcement scheduled for this week must be set back a week. New subscribers however, are getting their first issue this week.

NEXT WEEK will result in releasing total figures. We ask that you bear with us. Delay is the result of your noble efforts for the
