SODALTALK

Recording the Activities of Rochester Parish Sodalities Union

By Margaret Worthington. Have you heard how some of the Sodalities have been 'putting up'?

Turn in on the Columbus network at 12 o'clock Saturday, March 5 and listen to Dorothy Williamson speak from Washington on the 'Call to Youth' program.

Sodality Union is keeping her eye on that new Sodality at Holy Family. Prefect Leo Hannan tells us that one hundred fourteen attended the first meeting.

The newly formed Bowling League of the Sodality Union went over with a bang and a flourish on last Sunday night.

All up and doing Sodalities should immediately send letters or post cards to their Senators in Washington.

The newly decorated rooms of St. Patrick's Sodality are fast nearing completion, and all Sodalities are eagerly looking forward to opening.

NAZARETH DEBATERS DISCUSS STATE CONSTITUTION

In connection with the statewide program now being conducted by the Sodalities of the New York State Constitution Union...

Mr. Wilfred Andrus, coach of the Nazareth Debate Club, accompanied the girls to Albany. This question drew a large and responsive audience.

On Friday, February 11, Nazareth College and the College of St. Rose, Albany, N. Y., debated the question: 'Resolved: That the National Labor Relations Board should be empowered to enforce arbitration in all industrial disputes.'

Recent elections at Blessed Sacrament Sodality have entrusted the Sodality to the capable leadership of Prefect, James Terzaghi, Vice Prefect, James Deedy, Recording Secretary, Frances Biggs; Corresponding Secretary, Patricia Doyle; Treasurer, James McNally.

March 6 to 11 is known to the Sodality as National Vocation Week. Make it a week of intensive prayer that God may direct you to choose the right vocation.

All up and doing Sodalities should immediately send letters or post cards to their Senators in Washington.

This Lent we are urging all Sodalities to obtain one of the Penance slips from Sodality Headquarters and have them in your own home. Put them in a small box at a conspicuous place near the door.

NAMED BY WOMEN'S UNION TO ADVISE ON TOUR

Miss Laura Schilling of 2816 St. Paul Boulevard has been named as member of the National Advisory Committee arranging for a pilgrimage to the World Eucharistic Congress and a European tour under the auspices of the Catholic Central Union of American and the National Catholic Women's Union.

The pilgrimage has the authorization of the Most Rev. Joseph Schremes, D.D., Bishop of Cleveland American Member of the International Eucharistic Committee.

The Council is vitally concerned with two measures now before Congress 1. The Equal Rights Amendment, and 2. The Nely Bill to abolish block-banking and blind-banking.

Prompt action is important. Do not delay. At the convention held in St. Paul in 1933, the National Council of Catholic Women unanimously adopted a resolution which included protest against the custom of block-banking and blind-banking.

FR. COUGHLIN ACTS ON GROUPS

These groups, if they wish to assist in the spread of social justice, will remember that their teacher is Father Coughlin who teaches through the columns of social justice and over the radio, today divorced from politics and politicians as should be these groups.

The group whose members are in total harmony with each other should take it upon themselves to promote the circulation of Social Justice Magazine.

All support of Father Coughlin should come from his own members. Named with her as Secretary, Miss Adeline Santelli, Treasurer, Rose Williams, Miss Zazzara succeeds Miss Thelma Castillo and Miss Santilli, Miss Annie DeToro.
