GENEVA CLUB HEARS PRIEST EXPLAIN

Reformation Effect On Anglican Church

By Frank J. Conlon, Jr. —

GENEVA About seventy-five members of St Stephen's Club heard Rev William O'Brien of St Francis DeSales parish as the principal speaker at their semi-monthly dinner meeting on Thursday evening, March 24. Father O'Brien presented an interesting historical background of the English Reformation showing its influence on the development of the present-day Anglican church.

Maurice Buckley, delegate to the Geneva Traffic Safety Council, presented a report of the traffic committee's preliminary meeting and announced the public mass meeting which is to be held at Geneva High School auditorium on April 20 requesting members to plan on attending it.

In the business meeting which followed the dinner the members voted to hold a semi-formal dinner and dance at the Hotel Seneca on Easter Monday evening under the chairmanship of Mrs Colman Murphy.

The club's third annual corporate Communion at the 7:30 Mass on Easter Sunday morning followed by breakfast at the Hotel Seneca is also planned with Miss Grace Grimes as chairman. Miss Grimes was chairman of last year's breakfast which was declared an outstanding success.

A surprise entertainment in the form of home movies completed Thursday night's program. The dinner was arranged by Miss Hilda Hall, chairman, assisted by Misses Kathryn Toomba, Marion Fredenberg, Gertrude Krysinski, Hilda Lutz, Mrs. Catherine Quiehan, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shalala, Thomas Casey and Edward Tourado.

Sodalists Going To Buffalo

GENEVA Members of the De Sales High School Sodality are making plans to attend the Seventh Spiritual Leadership Convention which is to be held at the Hotel LaFayette in Buffalo on Saturday and Sunday, April 30 and May 1.

Rev Daniel Lord, SJ, one of the leaders of the organization and nationally prominent for his League of Decency Program, will be the principal speaker.

HOLY NAME SCHEDULES

Motion Pictures at Meet, Communion Sunday

Monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society of Holy Family church will be held on Wednesday evening, April 6, in the auditorium immediately after church services. All men of the parish are invited to this meeting.

A sacred motion picture of Bourdelle Dam will be shown by William McCoy.

The chairmen of the annual parish picnic to be held on June 19 will be appointed at this meeting. Final preparations for a lunch-on to be held in May, together with a one night pinochle tournament will be made.

Schedule of the society for the next two months follows:

April 6 Wednesday evening Boulder Dam Pictures.
April 10 Sunday Communion Sunday.
May 1 Sunday Diocesan Union Meeting at Auburn.
May 4 Wednesday evening Luncheon and Card Tournament.
May 8 Sunday Communion Sunday.

Bishop Codd Dies

Dublin The Most Rev William Codd Bishop of Ferns died last night in a nursing home after illness. He was a descendant of the Anglo Norman family and was educated in Christian Brothers' school in Wexford, at St Peter's College and at the Irish College in Rome. He was consecrated on December 21 1918.

THE SOCIETY FOR PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

The REV. JOHN S. RANDALL, Director

50 Chestnut St. | Home — Foreign Catholic Missions | Stone 1492

MISSION INTENTION: For the Missions of Africa which border on Mohammedan Territory. All of Northern Africa and a large part of Central Africa has been completely subjugated to the Rule of Islam. Mohammedanism holds imperial sway. That these people who sit in the darkness of Christianity's archenemy might become alive to the beauties of Catholicity, the Pope seeks your prayers during the month of April. The brief mission prayer an Our Father and a Hail Mary with the ejaculation, "St. Francis Xavier" will accomplish unbelievable results if recited each day.

Mass Stipends

Perhaps you are planning an Easter Mass for a departed relative or friend. In so doing remember the priests out there on the mission front. Frequently Mass stipends are their only source of revenue. They depend upon them for a living as well as a means of supporting their missionary labors. Send your stipends to the Diocesan Office and we will be happy to forward them to a needy missionary priest at home and abroad.

Promoters!

An appeal is sounded in every church of the diocese to organize a band of promoters for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. The obligations are few, but the spiritual advantages are innumerable. If your pastor calls upon you to assist in this way, respond enthusiastically, for you will become a home missioner supplying the material means necessary to conquer the World for the Sacred Heart.

Lenten Sacrifice

The fasting mark of Lent has passed by. This time Catholics have chosen to rejoice with Simon the Cyrene that the Cross of Sacrifice was not too heavy to carry. Meanwhile the lonely Prisoner of the Tabernacle is still waiting for the souls for whom He offers Himself in Sacramental Death on the Cross of Calvary.

We do not hurt too much to sacrifice the needed but some personal pleasure, some unneeded luxury to offer a prayer and make a small contribution to this organization. Verily, the "Fields are White for the Harvest" souls are waiting. The Divine Reaper to gather them into the Fold. Yet programs are being retarded because lay Catholics are shirking their obligation to carry the Cross to distant lands. A membership in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is only a few packages of cigarettes a box of candy a supply of cosmetics a few gallons of gasoline. Why not deny yourselves one or other of these luxuries and procure membership in this Society. It seeks to satisfy the thirst for souls expressed by the parched lips of the Crucified Saviour.

Which do you prefer to do, offer the means of conversion, or support the hand of the Roman soldier who lifts the sponge dipped in vinegar and gall to the lips of the Man God?

AQUINAS TO REPEAT

Its Lenten Drama In Passion Week

Aquinas Dramatic Club will present for the third time in its school auditorium its annual production of the Lenten play. "As It Was in the Beginning" on the first three days of Passion week, April 4, 5 and 6. Written and directed by Mr Edwin J. Dolan, the play is in two parts, the first of which is done in modern dress and diction, the second in biblical costume and poetical metre.

A strong and definite parallel is drawn between the persecution of Christ and the persecution of the moral and conscientious Christian in these modern times.

Students participating in the play are Dean Coffey, Robert Nagler, John Colgan, John Hogel, Robert Renner, Jean Gervin, Joseph Conway, Rosney Smyth, Robert Edelman, Richard Flanagan, Joseph Lilach, George Fuller, John Rice, Edward Vetter, George Kupferschmid, Richard Nowakowski, David Curtin, Edward Schnorr, Clifford Whitcome, Martin Mott and Henry Lally.

The faculty and students of Aquinas extend an invitation to all to witness this original drama. There is no admission charge and tickets may be obtained from any members of Aquinas Institute.

It is hoped by the producers that every Catholic will make an effort to attend at least one of the three performances and thereby encourage all those who are industriously working to make this Lenten production a real contribution to Catholic drama.

Dental Society Honors Geneva Catholic

GENEVA Dr Thomas J. Breen, dean of St Stephen's parish, was elevated from the office of vice president to that of the president of the Seventh District Dental Society at the seventieth annual meeting which was held in Rochester on Tuesday, March 22.

Dr Brennan succeeds Dr James W. Welch of Fairport.

FOUNDERS' WEEK OPENED BY K. OF C.

Brings Warning Of 'Red' Tactics

"Beware of any reform behind which lurks the leering smile of Communism."

"Any campaign will amount to nothing unless the Knights of Columbus first sanctifies its own members and makes them 100 per cent followers of Jesus Christ."

"Fire one of the heaviest shots in the war against Communism by getting every citizen to urge the Governor to approve the McNaboe anti-Communism bill."

These were messages left with more than 300 members of Rochester Council Knights of Columbus, by speakers at the Communion Breakfast, Sunday in Hotel Seneca opening the observance of Founders' Week, a nation-wide observance of the founding of the Knights of Columbus.

Bishop Kearney Heard

As speakers the Knights heard their Bishop and fellow-member the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Supreme Director Ray T. Miller of Cleveland, and State Commander of the American Legion, Jeremiah Cross of New York.

Stressing the importance of personal sanctification, the Bishop directed the Knights' attention to the importance of upholding decency in the community and of preserving the sanctity of the family.

"If we have a scrupulous feeling about decency because of a distinct conviction of its necessity in preserving family life, we are not making a contribution only to the members, but to the life and happiness of the nation," the Bishop declared.

He urged opposition to indecency on the stage, in literature, on the screen, in the press and in advertising because, he said, "We feel that these things harm the youth of our country in a serious way."

Seek Communists Organized

The warning against insidious Communist tactics was sounded by Supreme Director Miller, former Mayor of Cleveland. Citing from experiences as chief executive of that city, he said that Communists are organized in almost every city of the United States, Canada and South America.

Communists are getting into the most innocent movements, he pointed out, for the purpose of taking over leadership.

"A well organized minority of people," he warned, "can in due time pass a law over a sleepless majority and dominate it."

Communism has come dangerously close to the United States, he declared, and reviewing a tour of Mexico told of suppressive measures of Communistic activities in that neighboring country. "The greatest thorn in the side of Communistic leaders in Mexico is the Knights of Columbus," he stated.

Urges Bill's Approval

That the Rochester Knights join with their state leaders in seeking gubernatorial approval of the McNaboe bill barring Communists from holding public office was urged by State Commander Cross of the Legion, who commended the K of C Crusade Against Communism.

Speakers were presented by Dr. James N. Eastham of Nazareth College Faculty, who was toastmaster.

Members of the "Bishop Kearney Class" were welcomed by Grand Knight Leo F. Rombaut.

The Rev. Gerald C. Lambert council chaplain commended the Knights on the large turn-out for reception of Communion. Deputy Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn presented Supreme Director Miller and County Commander Francis Toomey presented his state commander.

Also at the speakers' table were City Judge Frederick J. Mix master of the Fifth District Fourth Degree Faithful Navigator James M. Ryan of Rochester Fourth Degree and Otto A. Schultz of Mount Carmel, Order of the Athambra.
