WARNS COMMUNISTS SUPPORT REVISION OF Neutrality Act To Aid Leftists

WASHINGTON (C)—Persons sincerely interested in peace and justice are urged to study carefully proposals to revise the Neutrality Act in a statement issued here by Edward J. Heffron, Executive Secretary of the National Council of Catholic Men. Mr. Heffron instanced one bill in Congress which he charged was designed to permit the giving of assistance to the Leftists in Spain, while denying the extension of similar aid to the Nationalists. He urged those opposed to the proposed legislation to make representations to their Congressional representatives.

Catholic Retreat at Georgia Post
NEW YORK (Birth control will democratize paganism in the family, the Rev. Ignatius W. Cox, S. J., Professor of Ethics at Fordham University, said in attacking a campaign to be started next month by the Citizens Committee for Planned Parenthood to raise $254,000 to "democratize birth control information."

The Austria Scene

WELCOME HITLER
WIENNA (C)—When Chancellor Adolf Hitler set foot on Austrian soil in the absorption of this former Republic by the German Reich, the Supreme Council of the International Church here sent him a telegram warmly greeting him in the name of over 530,000 Evangelical Germans in Austria. The telegram also told Hitler that he came "as rescuer from direct rule of all Germans regardless of faith."

COMMUNISTS AID SPAIN Leftist Head Reports in Daily Worker Story

NEW YORK (C)—On behalf of the Spanish Loyalist Government, Prime Minister Juan Negrin thanked the New York State Committee of the Communist Party this week for its "encouraging and splendid" message of support sent to that government. A story on the exchange of salutations was given a prominent place in the Daily Worker, official Communist newspaper published here.

Pope Confers With Cardinal

there was reported last week in Amsterdam. It was learned there that the feeling of apprehension for the future is growing in Catholic quarters in Berlin. This concern also extends into the former Republic of Austria, a part of Hitler's Reich where restrictions already have been put into effect involving particularly the Catholic Press and Catholic youth groups.

IMPOSTER VICTIMIZES Relatives of Jesuit By Posing As Friend

NEW YORK (C)—Another instance in which a Catholic family has been victimized by a man pretending to be a friend of a Jesuit member of the family has been brought to light. This latest instance happened in Baltimore. A person representing himself as a friend of an American Jesuit Scholastic who is teaching in the Philippines, called on the family of the young Religious, stayed overnight, was shown about the city, and borrowed enough money to pay the railroad fare from Baltimore to Utica, N. Y. Although this man later declared by word from the Philippines to be an impostor, promised to return the money promptly, the family of the Jesuit Scholastic has heard of neither the money nor the man since.
