THE TWO CREEDS

By GERALD KERNAN, S. J.

(Reprinted from The Queen's Work, St. Louis, for November, 1935.)

The Catholic creed is known to every literate man and woman in the world. However, outside the Catholic Church, it is, regrettably, understood by only a few.

Examined side by side, these two creeds are impressive. I have drawn the Communist creed, not from the writings of its enemies, but from the speeches of Lenin, from the official documents of the Soviet Republic—its marriage laws and legal code—from Marx and Stalin and Engels.

Studied in parallel these two creeds disclose the wide breach between Catholicism and Communism. That Catholicism is the positive, constructive theory of life, while Communism is the negative, destructive theory and practice.

Here are the creeds:

THE APOSTLES' CREED

- 1. I believe in God.
2. The Father Almighty,
3. Creator of heaven and earth;
4. and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord...

THE COMMUNIST CREED

- 1. There is no God.
2. All power belongs to the proletariat.
3. This earth came into existence of itself, and beyond that earth there is nothing...
